THE Canadian Freeman says: For some time past, it is alleged, James Morrisey, dressed in the garb of a Catholic priest, has been soliciting money from Catholic families in the southern part of Chicago. He was arrested on Thursday and arraigned for obtaining money under false pretences. Bail was fixed in the sum of $300.

THERE is very little probability of Winnipeg giving aid to St. Boniface in the proposition to creet another bridge across the Red River. One alderman candidly stated to a reporter recently that he should vigorously oppose the request. He was afraid, he said, that if too easy access was given to St. Boniface a portion of the city's population would be inoving over there to escape taxation.

THE Winnipeg Grain and Produce Exchange have issued a circular to the ing the amount of their indebtness farmers of Manitoba and the Territories warning them of the great loss to the country on account of saving frosted and It contains full instructions as regards to the treatment of such seed before sowing.
