permit, having regard to the requirements of gnitoV lual Results The following resolution (U.N. Doc. A/C.1/757) co-sponsored by twelve nations (including Canada) was adopted by the First Committee on November 2,1954, by 50 votes in favour (including Canada) to 5 against with 2 abstentions (India and Indonesia) and ind

a universal basis, extensiv the Charter.

hypothetical contingencies. On a reg Text of Resolution: boos a enoy evad au lo emos ognizes,

accordance with the principles The General Assembly; loling rebruy fisofficers report of the Collective M Having received the third report of the Collective Measures Committee submitted in accordance with sevi paragraphs 2 and 4 of resolution 703 (VII), nemerse

Bearing in mind that the reports of the Collective Measures Committee represent a useful examination of ways and means of strengthening the collective security system of the United Nations, selles to Lendiger tol

Nations collective seco 2011. Notes with approval the third report of the Collective Measures Committee, and in particular the principles of collective security contained in that to be based, this mutual support between the ; trogeral and the universal systems will have to continue.

Directs the Collective Measures Committee to remain 2. in a position to pursue such further studies as it may deem desirable, taking into account the "Uniting for Peace" resolution (377 A (V)), resolution 503 (VI), resolution 703 (VII), and the present resolution;

3. Requests the Collective Measures Committee to report to the Security Council and to the General Assembly as appropriate Josific evizable view of evize a sector of countries but solely scales and solely as appropriate of evize the solely scale of evize a sector of evize itself. Our object in building up the collective strength we consider essential for our survival has collective security and to pursue such further studies as the Committee may deem appropriate in accordance with the past directives of the Assembly, my Delegation believes the Collective Measures Committee should be continued. In continuing the Committee on this basis, the Assembly would, so to speak, be paying its fire insurance. A fire insurance policy is a good thing to have; for none of us these days can, I believe, pretend that we live in a fire-proof house. The time was, that we live in a fire-proof house. not so many years ago, when many Canadians thought that we lived in a fire-proof house and that we did not need to pay the premium of international co-operation in the field of collective measures. Events of the past fifteen years, however, have convinced most of those who held this view, in Canada and elsewhere, that they were wrong - that the absence of effective collective measures in the thirties led not to peace but to war, and that the achie collective security now would lead not to war but to