

H4. Are there other events that may need reporting?

Other occurrences, such as an earthquake, an abandoned mine collapse or blasts of less than 300 tonnes of TNT equivalent, may register on the IMS. It is the responsibility of the National Authority to clarify any event that registers on the IMS. Where industry is involved, their cooperation will be solicited but can be made mandatory through regulation.