GUATEMALAN PRESIDENT-ELECT TO VISIT CANADA

DECEMBER 18

The Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Right Honourable Joe Clark, today announced that the President-elect of Guatemala, Mr. Marco Vinicio Cerezo Arevalo, will travel to Ottawa for a brief unofficial visit on Wednesday, December 18. Mr. Cerezo was elected President on December 8 and his civilian government will take office in Guatemala on January 14, 1986.

During his stay in Ottawa, he will meet privately with members of the Government, parliamentarians and officials and discuss a number of issues of mutual interest to both countries.
