

"Canada has consistently supported the sovereignty, national unity and territorial integrity of Lebanon and the withdrawal of all foreign troops from its soil", Mrs. Landry said. "While Canada will continue to offer practical help to the Lebanese people, what is required for a longer term solution is a renewed effort by all parties concerned to achieve a political solution which recognizes the aspirations of all Lebanese", Mrs. Landry added.

Mrs. Landry is informing the Standing Committee on Labour, Employment and Immigration of these additional measures.
