Mr. Forest, Parliamentary Secretary to the President of the Privy Council, laid before the House,—Returns to the foregoing Orders.

Written notice having been given to Mr. Speaker, the honourable Member for Mackenzie (Mr. Korchinski) from his place in the House, asked leave under Standing Order 26, to move the adjournment of the House for the purpose of discussing a specific and important matter requiring consideration and stated the subject to be: "the virtual bottleneck and paralysis in wheat movement in Vancouver harbour, due to the failure of the government to work with the railways in scheduling box-cars for this purpose; a situation which has already produced the loss of a 17,000 ton contract and may result in the loss of others; which has produced damaging economic loss as some ships have been tied up for as long as a month paying demurrage charges as high as $2,500. a day; which has brought about stagnation in the movement of wheat at a critical time for Western farmers; and where the government, in the person of the minister yesterday, refused to take action".

STATEMENT BY MR. SPEAKER

Mr. SPEAKER: The honourable Member for Mackenzie (Mr. Korchinski) has given notice as required by Standing Order 26 of his intention to move the adjournment of the House to discuss the matter raised in his proposed motion.

As honourable Members know, the provisions of Standing Order 26 have been radically altered in the new rules of procedure of the House of Commons. Under the terms of paragraph 5 of Standing Order 26, in determining whether a matter should be given urgent consideration, the Chair takes into account
