

Part 5.

Rev. M.W. to his brother Rev. Amasa Dyer this the letter rec'd. Aug. 12. 1855. "Good friend and near relation of mine one Mr. Rich. Lot Mearns in London, who married my sister Thompson desires me to write in behalf of this gentleman & bearer his kindness, Mr. Richard Low of Falmouth in Britain, who designs to spend a year or two in New England in your college for perfecting his learning hee having lived 3 or 4 years under the instruction of one Mr. Morton a godly and learned man whom I know who is constrained to withdraw from the original Mr. Morton.

The above gentleman was the author of this volume and of him, the Rev. Dr. Olin, in the preface, page iii, says "Whom among us is he not known? or by whom among the bress of the Country, is he not esteemed for his affectionate regard unto the civil and religious and civil Liberties of "The particular incidents of these wars may be tedious to strangers, but will be read with avidity by the posterity of those, whose misfortunes and heavy were so conspicuous Belknap's Preface to his Hist. of New Hampshire

Mr. Morton, above named, was the Rev. Morton afterward of Charlestown, Mass.