

THE SENATE OF CANADA

BILL U⁵.

An Act for the relief of Enid Louise MacDonald.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Enid Louise MacDonald, presently residing in the township of Thurlow, in the county of Hastings, in the province of Ontario, wife of Eugene MacDonald, formerly of the said township, machinist, has by her petition alleged, in effect, that they were lawfully married on the eighth day of December, A.D. 1915, at the city of Belleville, in the said province, she then being Enid Louise Williams, spinster; that the legal domicile of the said Eugene MacDonald was then and is now in Canada; that since the marriage he has on divers occasions committed adultery; that she has not connived at nor condoned the said adultery; that there has been no collusion, directly or indirectly, between him and her in the proceedings for divorce; and whereas by her petition she has prayed for the passing of an Act dissolving her said marriage, authorizing her to marry again, and affording her such other relief as is deemed meet; and whereas the said allegations have been proved and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Enid Louise Williams and Eugene MacDonald, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Enid Louise Williams may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said Eugene MacDonald had not been solemnized.
