MADAME ANNA BISHOP.

One bud the Gard'ner gave me. A fair and only child, He gave it to my keeping, To cherish undented, It lay upon my bosom, It was my hope, my pride: Perhaps it was an idol, Which I must be denied. For just as it was opening In glory to the day, Came down the Heavenly Gard'ner And took my bud away, Yet not in wrath he took it— A smile was on his face, And tenderly and kindly, He bore it from its place!	Fear not, me thought he whispered "Thy bud shall be restored I take it but to plant it In the garden of the Lord. Then bid me not to sorrow As those who hopeless weep, For he who gave hath taken, And who took can keep. And night and morn together By the open gate of prayer, I'll go in to my darling, And sit beside him there: I know 'twill open to me Poor sinner though I be, For his dear sake who keeps it, And keeps my bud for me.
