

xxx.

At the general meetings, the members may be personified by proxy. The President shall previously verify each procuration.

xxxI.

On the feast of Saint Cecilia, on the days of competition, at concerts or other musical festivals, the members of the Academy may wear the following insignia, to wit: bearers of second class diplomas, the tetracord in silver; bearers of first class diplomas, the same tetracord in gold; Laureates, a seven-stringed lyre (Lyre de Terpandre), in gold; and the Professors of the Academy, the same seven-stringed lyre, in gold on red riband.

xxxII.

The present bearers of diplomas of member or first degree shall be considered as bearers of second class diplomas, and bearers of diplomas of graduates or second degree, shall be considered as bearers of first class diplomas.

xxxIII.

The Treasurer shall, at each annual general meeting, submit a report on the finances of the Academy.