Stopen evenings are pendental arranged of cattle on the Union Stock Yards, probably none better this season, and there were some exceptionally good loads on the market yesterday, bash barn, bennery; about half an acre orchard; several acres of wood; one mile from church and school; mail delivered at gate; telephote line by the catter of the market was steady to strong, but all other grades were off from 15c to 25c per cwt. To say that the market was steady thruout is misleading and not in accordance with the facts. Cholte quality Easter cattle are selling high—never so high as at the present—as a glance at the representative sales and the special market notes of The World this morning so clearly indicate, and all other lines are relatively high, but for all that yesterday's market for the common to medium class was easier, and as said before, from 15c to 25c lower.
