One More Win for Toronto

Another Game Cinched and a Stronger Hold Gained on the Lead

Two Sensational Catches by Breckenridge the Feature of the Opening Game With Reading

Breckenridge certainly carried off all the honors of the game. His sensational shoe-string catch of Weiser's line drive in the fourth was a rare piece of fielding. He tumbled headlong in an effort to grab the ball, and came up on the grass with it safely nestled in his glove, thus robbing the Reading batter of what looked like a sure hit.

Breckenridge again drew another applause from the fans in the sixth by a nice punning catch to the right-field foul line. Once more he snatched the ball as he fell forward in a somersault.

Breckenridge was prominent also at the bat. His single in the sixth paved the way for Toronto's second and winning run.

How Toronto's two tallies were made in the fourth and sixth innings is briefly told: In the fourth Gonzales singled to centre, Whiteman sacrificed him long to second. Freddie Walsh, Reading's new shortstop, booted Onslow's liner and Gonzales galloped in with the first run of the game.

A nice double play by Reading prevented any further scoring in this innings. In the sixth, Breckenridge again came to the fore by cracking out a sharp single over second. Gonzales doubled to the right-field bleachers and Breckenridge reached third. Whiteman grounded to third and was thrown out at first. Onslow was then retired at first on a close decision, while Breckenridge crossed the plate with the run that gave the Leafs the game.

Bugs Herche came out but once on the coaching line, and, as usual, his funny pranks kept the fans in good humor.

It was Hal Justin's first performance on the mound for a complete game, and his peculiar side-arm delivery and troublesome curves kept Dooinites puzzled at times, and they received but six hits from him during the whole afternoon.

Sandberg was robbed of what might have been a triple in the seventh, when Burns made a splendid running catch back into deep centre.

There was plenty of hitting by both teams, but they were usually fielded up in clean style, and altogether there were only 14 legitimate clouds during the game—Toronto receiving 8 and Reading 6.

If the Leafs keep up their present pace there is no doubt whatever but what they'll remain in first place. Manager Gibson is quite confident that his boys can take two more games from Reading again today.
