DROWNED IN A QUARRY.

Young Ingersoll Man Went in for a Bath Beachville, Ont., June 20.-A sad drowning accident happened this afternoon at the stone quarry of Messrs. Archibald Bros. of this place. Mr. Isaac Houton of Ingersoll, with his Isaac Houton of Ingersoll, with his two sons was engaged stone cutting for Mr. Boyce of West Oxford, and after getting through with the day's work it was proposed by one of the party that they take a bath in the quarry, which is full of water. Not being aware of the depth, and unable to swim, the eldest of the two boys went too far out and before help could reach him, sank to the bottom. Some reach him, sank to the bottom. Some too far out and before help could be recovered, and though medical aid was summoned, all efforts to resuscitate him proved unavailing.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM—Mr.

S. Ackerman, commercial traveler, Bellewille, writes: "Some years ago I used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for infammatory rheumatism, and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was the whole of one summer unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused excruciating pains. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with rheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others, as it did so much for me."
