Altho Mr. Shaughnessy says the C.P.R. is not in the deal with Mr. Hill, it will be recalled that the first announcement of the Morgan-Rockefeller-Hill consolidation was coupled with the name of Lord Strathcona, late President of the C.P.R., and an old ally of Jim Hill. If, then, the big American combine and the big Canadian com-purchaser of Crow's Nest Coal stock, and that he believed that the C.P.R. had refused to come into the Morgan-Hill-Rockefeller deal, and, therefore, that not only was there a Canadian opposition, bent on fighting the C.P.R., but that the greatest railway combination ever in the United States was also intending to make a dead set on the Canadian Pacific.
