Premier Ross Pleads—Thinks It is an Important Victory.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—(Telegram cable)—An important victory for the province is the decision in Ontario v. Quebec. The effect of it is to affirm the award of the arbitrators in favor of Ontario in the action of Quebec to make the Province of Ontario account for the outstanding balances due by settlers to the Common School Fund and uncollected taxes of 1897. The arbitrators held that Ontario was not under any liability to account for the outstanding balances due and uncollected at the close of 1897. The Supreme Court reversed the decision, and now the Privy Council reverse the Supreme Court and agree with the arbitrators. Premier Ross seemed to be much pleased when he learned the decision.
