The trial of the action brought by the town of Oakville to recover $8785, which their late treasurer, Thomis Howarth, had in his hands when he died in December, 1902, will be tried at Milton instead of Toronto. The town is suing Mr. Howarth's partner, George Andrews, alleging that the money was defoosited in the private bank of the firm. The defendant denies any partnership in regard to this sum, and says Howarth alone was responsible for it.

Court Robert Dunsmuir of the A.O.F. of British Columbia, which was wiped out by the great fire in Westminster some years ago, has a balance of $195 to its credit, but, it being defunct, there are no claimants. Annual July Sale of Fine Furniture. Every Piece Discounted in Price--From 15% to 50%

This is no spasmodic step, but an intelligently planned event of every July since we entered the furniture business. When the fall season opens we com. mence to receive immense purchases in all departments of this big store. Three floors of the store are given over to furniture, which makes it important that furniture stocks should be greatly reduced in volume before the new season's stocks commence to arrive.

We can safely say that the July sale of this year must out-distance all previous famiture sales. The stock, for one thing, is much larger than ever before, The quality of the furniture has never been equalled.

It is worth while putting emphasis on the fact that it is our regular lines of furniture—not cheap lots made up to boom a sale as is sometimes done—that is offered for sale at reductions that range from 15% to 50% off regular marked prices of every article.

> -Every article of Furniture in the store is reduced -in price for July.

It hardly needs the telling that the class of furniture sold in this store is very different to what you find ordinarily in furniture stores. And at the same time there is range enough to enable us to meet the calls of the most modest shopper as well as the one who may desire to furnish a mansion.

Dining Room Furniture

The assortment in dining room farniture could hardly be more complete and to the liking of the most particular householder. Beautiful lines are shown in mahogany, plain and inlaid, and in golden, weathered and English oak.

Drawing Room Furniture

The range embraces a very wide assortment in odd pieces, and also in complete suites. Some beautiful lines in mahogany and gold. Specials in Drawing Room Cabinets in many different styles. One will surely admire the artistic
