boycott. A certain bitterness is lent to the protest, however, by the question of buying on credit. Many of the Jewish working people are now out of work, and are not able to pay cash. They have been good customers, are willing to pay as soon as they are able and, therefore, think that they should receive some consideration. But, as Mr. Simon Yaffee, said at

Sunday morning, Jan. 12th, 1908, Flor-ence E. Kirbyson, in her 19th year. Funeral on Wednesday, Jan. 15th, at 2 p.m., from her brother's residence, 55 Grant-street, Toronto, to St. James' the University-avenue meeting, people buying on credit 'do not receive this consideration. A woman, he said, would go into a shop to get meat on credit. She would see the other wo men paying cash and, feeling asham el, would stand back until they were served. Then the butcher would turn to her and instead of greeting her by her name as in the days of her pros-perity, he would say, "Well, what you you want?" or, rather the Yiddish equivalent for the gruff question. He denied the statement made last week that 30 per cent. of the butcher business was done on credit. Only five per cent. was, he declared, and this was with people who are now out of work Don't Get Square Deal.

There is yet another complaint against the butchers' association. No only does it fix the price, but, it is said, it determines where a man sha deal. A customer cannot change his butcher without the written permission of the president of the association, and the association is said to employ spotters to see that this rule is not broken.

In the meantime, those who can afford it are eating chickens, which have advanced to 16 and 17 cents a pound. At the meetings yesterday there was no disorder, unless it can be called disorder when every two in the meet-ing are earrying on the discussion on their own account. In order that there might not be any trouble several poicemen were in attendance, including Inspector Cuddy, Patrol Sergeant Irwin, and Constables McKinney, Mont-gomery, Miller/ Lenton and Ward. Bakers May Be Next.

Mr. Adolphe Myer, a wholesale butcher, who sells to the Jewish retailers, said last week the wholesale price had been raised from 5 1-2 cents to 7 cents a pound. The price depended altogether on the price of cattle, he said, and this week another advance might be made. The Jewish butchers are not backing down as yet from their position,
