and disorder of the other. When you find your heart the least bit out of rhyme, your nerves unhinged, don't wait until you are prostrated on a bed of sickness. Take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Justice Riddell Gives Opinion in Suit for Damages.

Justice Riddell, giving counsel in the Dominion Brewery case, now going on in the assize court, his idea of the case at present, said, at the close of the hearing late yesterday afternoon:

"Suppose William Mackenzie had a full knowledge of the negotiations going on between the Clisdell-Orpen syndicate the right of the Millar party would be greater against him than against the vendors of the brewery. "In my opinion Mr. Mackenzie was acting as trustee, buying the property intending to benefit Case. I do not consider that the evidence given by Case is to be relied on, and accept Millar's against him every time.

The proceedings have been occasioned thruout by the action of Case, and, therefore, no costs shall be allowed to Case.
