Mrs. Ross Gooderham has returned home after an absence of some months.

The Lord Seaton Chapter, LO.D.E., gave a most successful talent tea and musicale and May Day fete on Saturday afternoon, at the beautiful house of Mrs. W. A. McCaffray, in Whitney avenue, Rosedale. There was a large and tempting array of home-made cakes, bread, sweets, flowers, etc., for sale, and a musical program at 4 q'clock, to which Mrs. W. D. Barron, Mr. Arthur George, Baron Alliotti, contributed. Mr. Arthur George, Baron Alliotti, con-tributed. Tea was served at 5 o'clock. There was also an exhibition of German war relics, which was most interesting. The proceeds of the entertainment will go towards patriotic work.

Mrs. Albert E. Gordon, who has been visiting friends in Belleville, Trenton and Montreal, has returned to town.

Mrs. D. W. Allen and her young sens, accompanied by Mrs. Allen's sis-ter, Miss Lillian Allardyce, left on Thursday for Weyburn, Sask.

The marriage took place Wednesday afternoon, at 2.30 o'clock, in the Church of St. Paul, Bloor street, of Fidelia Evetyn, youngest daughter of the late Mr. T. B. Taylor and of Mrs. Taylor, to Mr. Henry Hayburn Miller, son of Lt.-Col. J. B. Miller, the Ven. Archdeacon Cody officiating, and Dr. Davies played the wedding music and Miss Aird sang "Caim as the Night" during the signing of the register. The bride, who was brought in and given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. George Gale, looked perfectly lovely in white satin, draped with the finest point de gaze, given by her mother, the berthe being part of Mrs. J. B. Miller's gift. The long court train was fastened to one shoulder, and there was a bouquet of orange blossoms where the lace drapery ended at one side. The tulle vell was exquisitely embroidered with pearls, and a narrow wreath of orange blossoms and clematis fastened it to the wearer's lovely fair hair. Her empire shower bouquet of filies, gardenias and maidenhair, and those of the bridesmalds and matron of honor, of the most beautiful purpleshaded sweet peas and full-blown Anton Revoir roses, could only have been made white opper, and a bouquet of Killarney white saprey, and as bouquet of Killarney white same day this year. The races will be run in private and the prizes distributed at some later date.

MILLMAN-GILLESPIE.

Grace Church-on-the-Hill was the scene of a wedding on Wednesday afternoon at half-past two, of Julie, daughter of the late Rev. John Gillesdaughter of the late Rev. John Gillespie and of Mrs. Gillespie, to Mr. Adrian Russell Millman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Millman. The Rev. J. S. Broughall, rector of the church, officiated, and during the signing of the register Mrs. Harold Watson, Hamilton, sister of the bride, sang "All Mine Alone." The chancel of the church was lovely with palms and ferns and pink and ter of the bride, sang "All Mine Alone."
The chancel of the church was lovely with paims and ferns and pink and white snapdragon, flowers and ribbon also marking the guests' pews. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Paul Gillespie, and was looking very sweet in her gown of ivory satin with overdress of ninon bordered with pearls. The full skirt was the new fashionable ankle length with a very long train of the satin. Her tulle veil was held with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower of illies of the valley and roses and wore the bridegroom's gift, a string of pearls. The bridesmaids were Miss Laura Gillespie, the bride's sister, and Miss Kathleen Millman, sister of the bridegroom. They wore white silk voile frocks girdled with pink satin and with long sash ends and big pink chiffon hats with black velvet strings. They carried bouquets of daisles and sweet peas. Their gifts were pearl and peridot brooches, and the best man, Mr. Ormond Millman, and the ushers, Mr. Norman Robinson and Mr. John Gillespie, receiving platinum and pearl scarf pins.

Mrs. Gillespie, who was wearing a handsome gown of black and white tulle hat and carrying Beauty roses, held a reception after the ceremony at her home is Warren road. The rooms were

MOFFAT Closed Top Gas Ranges Save a Third of Your Gas Bill

T requires a third less gas to give the same amount of heat when your stove is equipped with the closed top. In addition to this, one burner will heat the entire top cooking surface of the Range, doing the work of three burners.

The closed top also overcomes the danger of the open flame, and the poisonous gas fumes are carried off up the flue and not dispelled around the room. This is a splendid feature of:

--- and can be supplied at a small additional cost. It is safer, cleaner and better in every way. Ask any Moffat Dealer to demonstrate the closed top.

THE FIELD OF ART

A. Y. Jackson Exhibition At Heliconian Club-Royal Society, England, Holding Spring Exhibition
As Usual-Local Art Notes.

BY IRENE B. WRENSHALL N INTERESTING exhibition of the works of Mr. A. Y. Jackson is being held at the Heliconian Club. It comprises, most of it, the sketches which Mr. Jackson made on his last summer's trip to the coast, and includes bits of the mountains sketched at every hour of the day.

I NTEREST is keen in the demon-strations of etching being held at the Grange, each Saturday after-noon, when the rooms are crowded with onlookers who watch with de-lighted interest the process of etching and printing.

S IR HUGH LANE, the English collector and dealer who arrived this week from London, brought with him a remarkable proposition, namely the offer of John S. Sargent to paint the portrait of any one desiring the same, the proceeds to be given to the Red Cross and the English Hospital of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem in England. Sir Hugh also stated that he stood willing to personally pay $50,000 for such a portait, and expected that someone would "top" this offer, which has not the same low tone as the land-scapes are the figure works. Here are notable the female figure in a studio called "Variation in Gray," the portaits "In Wisteria and Black and Red and Gray," and the two heads covered with lace. The etchings are effectively handled, and excellent in character.

This is a curious incident. Sargent needs no advertising and Sir Hugh "likes the limelight" The result of the proposition will be interesting.

tive. Notable among the landscape where windmills and canals are prominent are "The Shower," "Moonlight," "Evening," and "Yser-Morning," and "Yser-Evening," the last two exceptionally artistic.

This is a curious incident. Sargent needs no advertising and Sir Hugh "likes the limelight." The result of the proposition will be interesting.

OF PARTICULAR interest just now is an exhibition at the Arlington Galleries, 274 Madison avenue, N. Y., of a collection of oils and colored etchings by W. A. Sherwood, long a resident of Antwerp In manner of painting as well as in his titles, the artist takes the Whisties pose, and. fortunately for himself, with much artistic success. His landscapes and marines are rather works, but the latter are quite effect.
