Women From Many Countries Will Gather At Rome During May

Laws Concerning Women and Children to Receive Special Consideration of International Council of Women.

men will hold its quinquennial sessions at the Hotel Quirinal, Rome, from Monday, May 4, to Wednesday, May 13. The resolutions which have been sent in for discussion and which have been included in the preliminary program cover a very wide field, ranging from international mediation and the wrongs against women in time of war to the white slave traffic, and the protection of birds.

A reception of welcome will be given by the National Council of Women of Italy, and there will also be a public "welcome" meeting. At a meeting of the council, the committee on peace and arbitration will propose resolutions upholding the principle of mediation in international questions, and even in cases where vital questions are involved.
An appeal will be drawn up to be held before the next Hague conference for a thorough consideration of means whereby women may be more effectively protected in time of war.
The committee on laws concerning the legal position of women in relation to her personal rights as to her property, that equal rights should be given in all countries to the father and mother in respect to the guardianship, the education and the disciplinary control of their children.

It will be further urged that efforts should be made to secure juvenile courts in all countries where affiliated national councils exist, and where such courts have not been established to obtain a declaration that no child shall be looked upon as a criminal. Recommendations will also be made that women should be allowed to conduct judicial proceedings in juvenile courts.
A resolution will be proposed by the committee on equal moral standard, expressing the conviction that licensed houses are the source of supply of the white slave traffic and urging their entire suppression.

SCHOOL BOY FOUND IMPORTANT PHOTOS

Picture of Secret Military Order Discovered in Suicide's Property.

BERLIN, Feb. 7.—The auction sale of personal effects of Col. Rodet, the Austrian traitor and spy for Russia, who killed himself several months ago, has disclosed some of his operations. A high school boy in Prague bought at the auction three rolls of film. When he reached home he discovered that on one roll of supposedly unexposed film there was cleverly hidden the photographic copy of a secret military order of the highest importance, signed by the Archduke Francis Ferdinand, and intended only for the eyes of the corps commander of Prague and the chief of the Prague general staff. It was promptly delivered to the army authorities.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W. S. 65, Windsor, Ont. will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child, the chances are it can't help it. The treatment, also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

"ARSON SQUAD" ACTIVE.

INVERNESS, Scotland, Feb. 7.—An "Arson squad" of militant suffragettes today set fire to and burned to the ground Hazelbank House, a Highland residence in Tomatin, sixteen miles from here. The house belonged to the widow of a county councillor and was temporarily unoccupied. The usual traces of the presence of suffragettes were found in the grounds in the shape of a quantity of suffrage literature.
