

the losses sustained. Under the circumstances the Department does not feel that it should incur the expense of a further examination of the river.

The papers left by you are returned herewith.

Yours very truly,

D. J. Paul
Deputy Supt. General.

Ralph Smith, Esq., M. P.,

House of Commons,

Ottawa.