BOARD OF TRADE ASKED TO ENDORSE RESOLUTION

The resolution passed recently by the Montreal board of trade calling upon the government to enforce the Militia Act, has been sent to the St. John Board of Trade for endorsement. The matter will be taken up at the next meeting of the board. The resolution of the Montreal board is as follows:

Whereas, at this time of international crisis, when human liberty is at stake, it is most desirable that able-bodied men of military age should be qualified to defend their country, and country is one which should be shared equally by all male citizens of military age and fitness, and Whereas, the ranks of the militia have been greatly depleted by the large number of its men who volunteered for overseas service, and Whereas, there exists in the act known as the Militia Act the machinery necessary to call out and train the citizens of Canada for the defence thereof,

Resolved, that the Montreal Board of Trade in special general meeting this day assembled humbly prays the government of the Dominion of Canada to enforce immediately the provisions of the Militia Act.

Sun Rises..... 6.08 Sun Sets..... 6.47
Time used is Atlantic standard.

Rev. Alexander Grant, a corporal from the Princess Patricia regiment, delivered the evening sermon in St. David's Presbyterian church last night. He spoke on "The Fall of Militarism."

When a steamer from the West Indies arrived here yesterday it was learned that two members of the crew were suffering from scalded feet. It was said one of the boilers had burst. The men were removed to the General Public Hospital last evening.

John F. McCarthy, who has resigned as dock superintendent for the Atlantic Sugar Refineries, Ltd., in this city, was made the recipient of a handsome traveling bag, by the members of the staff on Saturday night. Mr. McCarthy will go to Montreal, where he has accepted a position. He will be succeeded here by Mr. Cole.

An enjoyable entertainment was given in the Home for Incubables on Saturday afternoon. The programme was arranged by Miss Alice Rising, Mrs. H. A. Powell and Mrs. James F. Robertson. Among those who took part were Mrs. Ring, Miss Minnie Myles, Mrs. F. A. Goudie, Mrs. Horton, Mrs. James Barnes, Miss Blanche Myles and Miss Alice Rising. Little Gladys and Blanche Dryden sang and played the piano well.

In asking the prayers of the congregation for the repose of the soul of the late Monsignor Edmund Doyle, of Milltown (N. B.), at the 9 o'clock mass in the Cathedral yesterday, Bishop LeBlanc referred to the fact that the Monsignor Doyle had been parish priest in St. John for several years and was well remembered by the older inhabitants of the city. He had led an exemplary life, continued his lordship, and his life could be taken as an example both by the laity and the clergy.

An alarm from box 8 was rung in about 11.45 o'clock on Saturday night and brought the city fire department to the C.P.R. house, conducted by Mrs. Ganong in North street. A mattress had caught fire in one of the rooms. Some damage was done before the blaze was extinguished. At 10.10 o'clock on Saturday night the West Side fire apparatus extinguished a blaze, caused by an explosion of an oil stove in the home of Mrs. Margaret Haley, St. James street, West End. Little damage was done.

MAINE LOBSTER LAW.

Augusta, March 30.—The house on Thursday afternoon by a vote of 116 to 14 accepted a minority report "ought to pass" from a committee on sea and shore fisheries on the Goldthwait double gauge lobster bill so called, with a lower measurement of nine inches and an upper measurement of thirteen inches in place of the present 10½ inch measurement.

BURIED ON SUNDAY.

The funeral of Mrs. William S. Vail was held yesterday afternoon from her late residence, South Bay, to the Church of the Good Shepherd, where service was conducted by Rev. Walter P. Dunham. Interment was in the Church of the Good Shepherd cemetery.

The last service of St. John Presbyterian church was held last evening when the congregation, which will unite with St. Stephen's congregation to form the Knox Presbyterian church, held its last services as a distinct parish. Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, whose resignation as pastor now takes effect, did not preach a formal farewell sermon, but instead proceeded his sermon with a few appropriate remarks. At a meeting of the board of the mission of the Presbyterian church held in Halifax last Wednesday, Mr. Anderson was appointed port chaplain for St. John for the home mission society for six months, with a probability of its becoming a permanent one. Mr. Anderson will have no chapel or building of worship, his work being largely among returned men and other soldiers, as well as strangers in the city. Mr. Anderson, in his opening remarks, said that he was grateful for the cooperation and help that had been afforded him during the time he had occupied the pulpit of St. John. He hoped that his endeavors for a Christian up-building of those who had been members of the church had not been in vain. And he further said that the uniting with St. Stephen's marked a new milestone in the career of the members of the church, and he was glad to have been able to help them on to something better and broader. He also said that he would watch their future with interest, and in closing extended his heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

The sermon, which was strong in its appeal, was a fitting close to the pastorate that Mr. Anderson has so ably filled. His text was taken from St. Mark's 9 : 6.

Under the authority of the Presbytery of St. John, the congregations of St. John and St. Stephen's will meet soon to consummate the proposed union. The basis of union, as submitted to the Presbytery by the congregations, has been approved. The first meeting of the United congregations will be held at an early date.

Although the services of the united congregation are to be held in St. Stephen's, it is understood that late a large, modern edifice is to be constructed. It is also understood that St. John church will be sold at a later date.

FAGGED-OUT WOMEN

Will Find a Helpful Suggestion in This Letter

Overworked, run-down "fagged out" women who feel as though they could hardly drag about, should profit by Mrs. Carter's experience. She says: "I am the mother of six children and I got so weak and run-down that I couldn't eat anything and it seemed almost impossible for me to get around and do my work. I tried different doctors' remedies without benefit. I saw Vinol advertised and decided to try it, and received so much benefit from the first bottle that I continued to take it, and it has built up my strength and made me strong and well. I consider Vinol the best medicine I have ever taken, and advise all weak, run-down women to try it." Mrs. Bessie Carter, State Road, N.C.

If all the tired, overworked, run-down women in St. John could only realize how our delicious Vinol, which contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, supplies the vital elements necessary to build up blood and strength, we wouldn't be able to supply the demand. WHITE ELEPHANT SALE WAS SUCCESS

A rummage sale, conducted along unique lines, was productive of more than $200 on Saturday, in aid of the military Y.M.C.A. campaign, soon to be launched in the city. The affair was held in the Congregational church vestry and was a decided success. The ammunition for the conduct of the sale was secured through excellent response on the part of the citizens to an appeal for cast-off clothing and household "white elephants."

Stanley K. Smith was the general convenor of the small committee in charge, ably assisted by Miss Olive Flewelling, president of the league; Miss Winnifred Smith and Miss Florence Dick.

Those working at the tables were: Hats—Miss Flewelling, Miss Marjorie Stanley, Miss Mabel Lewis, Miss Constance Campbell, Miss Muriel Blakey and Miss Vera Leonard.
Boots and shoes—Mrs. LeBaron Clark, Mrs. Elmer J. Young, Miss Dick, Miss Vera Webb, Miss Florence Thompson, Mrs. G. A. Dickson and Scouts Horsman, Hoyt and Hays. T. H. Carter.
Women's wear—Mrs. T. H. Carter, Mrs. F. Z. Fowler, Mrs. C. G. Flewelling, Miss Eva Smith, Miss Emma Crowell, Miss Jessie Lyons.
Men's wear—Mrs. G. Wilford Campbell, Miss Ada Fairwell, Miss Marjorie Campbell, H. A. Bonk.
White Elephant counter—Mrs. Cunard, Miss Barbara Clark, Miss Ina Thompson, C. G. Flewelling.
Ladies' blouses and fancy counter—Miss Winnifred Smith, Miss Myrtle Vanwart.

NATIONAL SERVICE

Ottawa, April 1.—The extension of time for the receiving of national registration cards which expired yesterday, did not produce any appreciable result. The number of belated cards sent in has been almost negligible. The renewed opportunity offered to the slackers or to those who for one reason or another neglected or declined to sign the cards last January, has apparently not moved them. It is known that there are many thousands of the male urban population of Canada who have not complied with the government's request to fill in the cards and consequently the inventory of Canada's man-power is, to that extent at least, incomplete and unsatisfactory. The real problem before the government now is how to get after this considerable minority of slackers and secure service from them towards war work. That problem is still unsolved. Apparently it is not even in process of solution. The government is still relying upon a somewhat vague form of official appeals and moral suasion. No decision has been reached as to the next step in the national service campaign, insofar as it relates to present needs of war work. There is no indication that any drastic action will be taken towards compelling those who have not yet signed the cards to now sign them. Nor is there any indication that the government or the National Service Board will adopt any really practical method of state organization of the man-power specifically disclosed by the incomplete inventory. The director-general of national service, R. B. Bennett, has, it is understood, urged upon the government the necessity of firmer action to supplement and make practical the registration now taken, but as far as can be learned the cabinet is not disposed to go farther. Until parliament meets again the cabinet will apparently be content to just drift along as at present.
