GLORIOUS DAY FOR TEA AND SALE AT BUNGALOW

Under the auspices of the Soldiers' Wives League, a tea and sale is being held at "The Bungalow" at Pleasant Point this afternoon. The day is delightful and the event gives promise not only of success financially but also of being a very pleasant social affair. For the last two years the members of the league have arranged a Christmas treat for the children whose daddies are overseas and the affair this afternoon is expected to provide funds to assist in carrying out similar plans this year.

Mrs. George F. Smith, president of the league, is chairman of the general committee; the tea tables are in charge of Mrs. W. W. White, Mrs. John E. Moore and Mrs. Stewart Skinner; Mrs. L. W. FRANK JENNINGS MEETS FRIENDS OF OLD NO. 4 SIEGE BATTERY

In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Jennings of East St. John, dated September 17, Q. M. S. Frank X. Jennings writes that there were big things in the air. "Of course," he says, "I can not tell you about it but through the papers you can figure it out. At all events things of interest are happening and are going to continue to happen. I had the good fortune the other day to run across the old No. 4 Siege Battery now the 219th battery, attached to an English R. G. A. group. All are well. Among others I saw Capt. Roy King, Lieut. Jack Fairweather, Phil McBride, Alfred Henderson, Arthur Ellis, Jack Morrissey, Don Macaulay and dozens of others."

TRAINED BY JACK REDFERN

The 219th, which holds the Borden shield as having the crack company of the Highland Brigade, has again added laurels to its name by winning first place in a hotly contested competition in first aid to the wounded.

On last Saturday, before thousands of spectators at Aldershot Camp in a unique exhibition of how stretcher-bearers work under fire on the battlefield, its squad of four men, consisting of Privates D. F. McGuire, Halifax; H. L. Porter, Airedale; R. C. Murphy, Halifax; and A. G. Penney, Berwick, won in open competition against three picked teams from the 15th, 18th and 16th battalions.

The 219th men have been trained through the summer under the most efficient instruction of Q.M.S.I. Redfern, C.A.M.C., ably assisted by Sergt. P. M. Hamilton of the 219th Medical Office.

The 219th won by one minute and eighteen seconds over their closest competitor, the 16th, who put up a close argument for the championship. This test reveals the splendid efficiency of the training which these men are receiving in first aid, and Capt. Churchill, M.O., has been receiving congratulations upon the success of his men, since this proves that on the day of battle the wounds of the men will be attended to with the greatest of care and speed.

The stretcher-bearers of the 219th battalion made a 20-mile route march on Wednesday to Wolfville, returning by Port William and Belcher street. This is the longest route march yet taken with full packs, but no one fell out and the boys came back having had a good time and with pleasant memories of their kindly reception.

HALF THOUSAND MORE TROOPS SAID TO BE ON WAY HERE

To Arrive From Valcartier Tomorrow Night is Report Today

Information was received in the city this morning to the effect that 500 soldiers and sixteen officers would arrive here tomorrow night from Valcartier. No official word had been received at the office of the New Brunswick command until noon today, although all arrangements are reported to have been made for their transportation on the C. G. R.

Just what unit or part of what unit they are could not be ascertained, but it is just possible that it is the 229th Railway Construction Battalion. A few days ago it was rumored that St. John might be the winter home for the 229th, providing the Irish Rangers in Montreal did not secure at least 100 recruits within two weeks.

The 229th Battalion's total strength is about 600. There is also yet unaccounted in Valcartier a Special Service Battalion which is partly filled up, but so far this unit coming here for the winter has never even been suggested.

WALTER MCFATE DIES SUDDENLY

Upper Golden Grove Farmer Well Known in the City

The village of Upper Golden Grove and vicinity was saddened this morning when it became known that Walter McFate, a prosperous young farmer of that place, had died suddenly, presumably from heart trouble. Mr. McFate was about his work as usual yesterday and rose this morning to commence his farming as was his custom. He had gone to the barn to see to the cattle and returned to the house, when suddenly he was overtaken, without a moment's notice, by death. He was thirty-three years of age and was well and favorably known both in the county and city. The news of his sudden death will be heard with deep regret by his many friends. Mr. McFate leaves, besides his mother, Mrs. W. A. McFate, three brothers, William and John of Golden Grove, and Albert of this city, and four sisters, Mrs. George Johnson and Ethel of Golden Grove, Catherine in Boston, and another married sister in the west.

IN HONOR OF FORMER ST. JOHN MINISTER

Tablet at Fond Du Lac in Memory of Late Rev. Dr. T. G. Smith

The account of the unveiling of a tablet in Fond Du Lac, Wisconsin, which appears in a recent issue of The Daily Commonwealth of that city, is of interest to many here who revere the memory of Thomas Gillespie Smith, D. D., 1830-1899, pastor of this church, 1867-1874. "A beautiful white tablet, the gift of Robert Powrie, on which the image of Rev. Thomas Gillespie Smith, who was pastor of the First Presbyterian church from 1867 to 1874, is done in bold relief, is to be unveiled at the opening of the morning service at the Presbyterian church on Sunday.

"Years of loving friendship between Mr. Powrie and Rev. Dr. Smith inspired the former to execute the piece of art, which is remarkable for its clearness and for its almost exact similarity to the photograph from which Mr. Powrie had to work.

"Surrounding the oval of the relief are these words, engraved in marble:—To the glory of God and in loving memory of Thomas Gillespie Smith, D. D., 1830-1899, pastor of this church, 1867-1874."

The late Dr. Smith was the minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church in St. John from 1833 to 1866 and still is remembered by the older members of the church. While here he married Miss Zillah Rankine, daughter of the late Thomas A. Rankine of this city. Two of his daughters still reside here, Mrs. John B. Magee of Mecklenburg street, and Mrs. Allan W. Daniel of Rothesay. His youngest son, Lieutenant W. Fielding Smith is now at the front, a grandson went over with the first contingent and another has enlisted.

From St. John Dr. Smith went to Wausau, Wis., and later to Kingston, Ont., where he was financial secretary of Kingston University. His death took place there and his widow still resides in Kingston.

OUTLOOK GOOD AT MOOSEPATH FAIR

The St. John City and County Agricultural Society's annual exhibition is being held today at Moosepath. Very little was done in the morning, but towards noon large numbers began to reach the grounds from the city and county.
