ENEMY'S RETREAT IS VERY RAPID, SAYS THE OFFICIAL LONDON ANNOUNCEMENT

Whole Artillery Equipment of One German Army Corps Captured by French-British in Swift Pursuit of Retiring Foe This Morning

London, Sept. 12.—According to official announcement made here, the third French army has captured all the artillery of one German army corps.

London, Sept. 12.—"Our troops have crossed the river Ourcq and are moving this (Saturday) morning in rapid pursuit of the enemy," is an announcement given out today by the official press bureau.

London, Sept. 12.—Three tremendous struggles are waging along as many battle lines, and from none of them comes a report of a decisive result.

London, Sept. 12.—The Antwerp correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says: "A courier brings news of fighting at Hofstade, near Malines. King Albert followed out and participated in the general engagement, which is apparently going well."

London, Sept. 12.—A despatch to the Daily News from Amsterdam says: "According to a German despatch, the Belgian government having opposed the delivery of the army necessities re-

London, Sept. 12.—Shortage of cavalry horses is causing British army officials much uneasiness. Fox hunting in England and Ireland has encouraged the breeding of light mounts, but unfortunately officers from continental armies have visited the chief English and Irish fairs for years and bought the most select saddlers.

London, Sept. 12.—A Copenhagen despatch to the Times says it is reported from Sandhansen, twenty-nine miles northeast of Stockholm, that a German fleet of twenty-nine vessels has been sighted between Gotska, Sandan Island, in the Baltic and Kopporsten, nine miles north.

Paris, Sept. 12, 3 p. m.—It was officially announced here this afternoon that the German forces to the east of Paris are generally retreating, and that they are offering only a feeble resistance to the French and British troops.

A WARSHIP THAT IS NOT A SHIP AT ALL AND A GUN THAT HAS MILITARY HISTORY

The picture shows the 'Ladysmith Gun,' a 4.7 quick-firer which was mounted on wheels by the crew of H. M. S. Powerful and taken to Ladysmith where it did good service during the Boer War. It is now on H. M. S. Excellence, as the Admiralty calls the training depot at Whale Island, Portsmouth, although it is not a ship but a land station.
