SECOND HEAVY OCTOBER BLOW

High Wind, Rain Deluge And Sunshine For Variety

SEA KICKED UP IN HARBOR

Manager Philips of Victoria Hotel Narrowly Escapes Serious Injury as Large Letter Falls From Hotel Sign to Street

The sun beamed on the city this morning for the first time since October 7, and citizens who felt the warm, cheery rays of the welcome orb were general in their expression of satisfaction at the marked change from the inclement and depressing storm period which has held sway for the greater portion of October.

The stiff sou'wester which swept the city was pleasant, despite the pranks of the boisterous gale, as the tonic effect of the clear, cool air speedily dispelled gloom and damp and mugginess, and was remarkably bracing and refreshing.

A moderate southeasterly gale sprang up last evening, following a close, warm day, and at eight o'clock the high wind blew with such force that a heavy sea was running in the bay and an unusual swell was lifting in the harbor.

At 8:30 this morning, a fairly heavy driving rain resulted, continuing until noon after daybreak, and the gale increased in velocity, and finally, the gale shifted to the southwest and the rain ceased at seven o'clock. The gale was a heavy one, ranging in velocity from thirty-two to forty miles, and the gauge registered highest at about 9:30 a. m.

The total precipitation was one quarter of an inch.

The appearance of the sun today was the first really, truly sunbath which has been given this locality since October 7, for, although Old Sol has sent a ray or two earthward on several occasions the glimpse has been only momentary, and the sunshine this morning was a most welcome change as the wet, gloomy weather which prevailed for so long, has had a very depressing effect on affairs in general.

The storm is understood to have raged with great severity in the west, as the city has been without complete telegraphic communication with the larger centres since early last evening, but the lines are now in better operation.

The strong shifting gales raised a long roll in the harbor and Courtenay Bay, and the shores were swept by great breakers, while the seas were topped with whitecaps which gave off clouds of spray under the whip of the gusts of wind.

The total rainfall for the month of October, to date, as furnished by Director Hutchinson of the local observatory, is 2.97 inches.

Had Narrow Escape
No serious damage has been reported in the city, probably owing to the fact that everything damageable was cleaned up by the previous gales.

Manager Philips of the Victoria Hotel narrowly escaped serious injury or death this morning, as he was leaving the hotel when the letter "H" was blown from the sign and fell about a yard behind him. The letter was made of stout heavy wood, was about three feet in height, and if he had been struck, he would probably have been killed instantly.

The damage to the C. P. R. Telegraph Company's lines sustained during last night's storm and which had the effect of cutting off communication over their lines with Upper Canada, was all repaired by ten o'clock this morning. The damage was caused by trees falling across the lines at two places in Maine. As soon as the trouble was located, repair men were put to work.

The Western Union had two of their wires between Woodstock and Edmundston cut out of use for a while on account of the storm. One of them was repaired by noon and the other will be repaired this afternoon.

The New Brunswick Telephone Company report damage on only one or two of their local lines, and were not seriously affected.

SAY BANK CLERKS ARE SHORT $9,000

Street Talk Fails to Bring Any Statement From Bank of Nova Scotia Manager Here or General Manager

Rumors of shortages in the accounts of some members of the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia here have been current for several days. The report is that two or three clerks are involved and that the money has gone by way of the stock market.

The figure mentioned is $9,000. It is said that several of the clerks have been engaged in an attempt to beat the stock market game and when their resources were dissipated drew upon the bank funds in an attempt to recoup their losses with the result that they got in deeper than ever.

When asked about the matter this morning R. B. Wallace, manager of the chief branch of the bank here, refused to discuss it, stating that he had nothing to say. He did not deny the report, or even attempt to minimize it merely repeating, when asked if it could be denied, that he had nothing to say.

H. A. Richardson, general manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, when interviewed in Toronto by the correspondent of this paper, said he did not wish to make any statement at present.

POLICE COURT
In a court room filled with smoke from a newly lighted fire, three prisoners charged with drunkenness faced the police magistrate this morning. His Honor remanded them, after giving instructions to find out where they had secured the liquor. Two were arrested on Sunday and the other on Saturday night. Three other prisoners arrested on drunkenness charge forfeited their deposits of $8 each.

AN INTERESTING MISSION
J. H. Jacobson, of Vancouver, has arrived in the city and will be one of the principals of an event next month.

The Men's and Young Men's New Fall Suits are Fine Beyond Compare

We are reporting an actual condition and not printing idle and irresponsible talk, just because the autumn winds are blowing and we would like very much to get your dollars.

We don't want them if the suits are not good enough.

We would rather not sell a man a suit than disappoint him in one. But, without doubt, this is a stock without disappointments. We have made sure of that.

So far as we can see, and we have gone into the business pretty thoroughly, it isn't possible for suits to be better at the prices marked on them, whether you judge them by the fabrics, or the tailoring or the styles.

We know that not all men and young men are quite sure as to which store is the best to come for a new suit, but every man with any claim to common sense knows that this store is so different from any other that for his own protection he should at least see what it has got to show him before deciding where he will buy.

A good time to see is now.

- THE MEN'S SUITS $8.00 to $35.00
- THE YOUNG MEN'S SUITS 6.00 to 25.00
