"Pshaw!" exclainmed Miss Yerner impatiently. "I'm sure we'll miss the opening number. We've waited a good many minutes for that mother of mine."

"Hours, I should say," Mr. Sloman retorded rather crossly.

"Ours? Oh, George!" she cried, and laid her blushing cheek upon his shirt front.

it is now felt that these schools must be so conducted as to educate boys for work on the farm and in the factory as well as for the professions. The present system has a tendency to rob the rural communities and send the brightest youths away to the cities. Mr. Patterson quotes from a recent address in Toronto by the principal of Ridley College, St. Catherines, to the effect that the beautiful fruit farms of the fect that the beautiful fruit farms of the Niagara peninsula are occupied by families exploitation.

nade the statement that no person on the servative side of the House of Comnons ever proposed to repeal the British reference. The Winnipeg Free Press has poked into this matter a little carefully and finds that as long ago as 1902 Mr. R. L. Borden declared in Victoria, B. C., that The latest Borden declared in Victoria, B. C., that "such a preference impaired Canadian industries and its value to the Empire was of a questionable nature." In Halifax also million dollar fortune. Mr. Borden declared that "a mill in Haiifax was worth as much to the Empire as mill in Yorkshire." Commenting on Mr. Borden's statements the Montreal Gazette said "it would be better to go straight to the point and abrogate the preferential clauses." The Gazette further declared that "a straight business tariff should be adopted applying not to countries but to imports," which would obviously do away with the preference. Mr. Blain, speaking with the preference. Mr. Blain, speaking the House in the same year, 1902, said:

"Father, I should like very much to hear one of your sermons."

"Well," said the clergyman, "you could have heard me last Sunday if you had been where you should have been."

"Where was that, pray?"

"In the county jail," answered the bluff priest as he walked away.

The verdict of the jury in the Brundage All these I know, but do not Know how to pay our bills case declares that there was carelessness peared because the boys were educated out of the district and into the professions. Yet, he says, the newer settlers have turned the district into a great garden, quadrupled the price of land, and are making greater yearly profits than those of the average professional man.

The remedy, Mr. Patterson argues, is in the construction of the shooting galleries be permitted on the exhibition grounds in the carelessness in the construction of the shooting galleries was carelessness in the construction of the shooting galleries was carelessness.

ANOTHER DOMESTIC PROBLEM

The prospective bride and groom (colored) were not known to the minister and so, to perform the ceremony conscientiously, he asked a lot of questions. The man, he learned, had come recently from the south and was working in a hotel in town where his desired bride was a waitress.
