

people place the loss of life at 5,000 at least. The second case of alarming lynchings was witnessed this morning near Kernville. A man stealing valuable articles from a house was seized by the mob...

Andrew's Church Chatham. It is, we suppose, needless to say that Rev. Mr. Wait's name was not before the congregation at all, as represented by yesterday's Advocate.

PERSONAL.—Mr. James Anderson of the Daily Telegraph staff, St. John, was sixty-seven years old on Monday, June 3rd. Mr. Anderson has been connected with the Telegraph for many years, and if we mistake not is the oldest newspaper man in St. John.

At the water in the junction of debris at Johnston's store bridge, continues to burn. It is estimated to average thirty feet in depth, although a few feet are deeper. It is composed of water, mud and silt...

ONE OF THE 600.—James Johnson, a veteran of the Crimean war, died at Moncton last week. He had been for some time past watchman in the railway shops. He served with the Donnikill dragoons through the whole Crimean war...

Enrich the Blood by the use of Miller's Beef Iron and Wine, which supplies the necessary blood building material. It is estimated to be nearly a mile in length and already, as the fire is being extinguished the sickening odor of dead animals bodies is being wafted.

THE CATHARIC AND THE NORTH SHORE, etc. FLOUR, TEA, &c.—See the London House advt.

SMOKE THE OREGON, the best ten cent cigar in the market. For sale wholesale and retail at Z. Tingley's, Chatham.

THAT LATE PAPER, the Montreal Transcript, is putting up a new press to meet the ever growing needs of its daily edition.

PROF. CURIE'S CONSUMPTION AND PISO'S REMEDY FOR CATARRH are sold by J. D. R. MacKenzie, Druggist, Chatham.

MR. P. TURNER WILSON and bride who were married at St. John on Tuesday, are attending the congregation of the Holy Trinity Church, Chatham, on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock.

CHATHAM STEAMING RIVER was sold under Mr. Hutchins's mortgage yesterday by Mr. E. Johnson for $1,000. Wm. Murray, Esq., being the purchaser.

AGRICULTURAL.—The Board of Directors of Northumberland Agricultural Society is to meet at the Canada House, Chatham, this Thursday, afternoon at three o'clock.

HALL'S HALL RENOVATOR is free from Alcohol, and that imparts the American hair is scientifically prepared, and will restore gray hair to its original color and vigor.

RICHMOND ROAD repairs are to be sold by supervisor McNaughton on Thursday next, 19th inst., commencing at Dr. Talbot's corner at 10 m.

CLUB MEETING.—We are requested to state that the L. C. Club will meet in their rooms, Goggin Building, on Tuesday evening next.

BROKEN.—The connecting rod of the gang in Platt's mill, Nelson, was broken yesterday, which will cause a delay of a day or two for repairs.

RARE TREAT AHEAD.—The Rev. Scott-Siddons will give an interesting lecture on the Masses in the evening, 18th inst. The world-famed reputation of this beauty and artist needs no comment.

INSURED AT OCEAN.—Mr. Warren C. Winslow has been authorized by the British American Assurance Company to accept all claims of fire risks, have policies and make endorsements, receipts, duty or reference to the head office.

M. A. DUBOIS.—At the Mount Allison College Convocation on Wednesday last week, the degree in course of Master of Arts was conferred upon Rev. Hibbert Baker, B. A., '88, of Derby.

FATAL RESULT.—Angus McInnis, who was shot at Douglassburg on Tuesday last week, as reported in the ADVANCE of 29th inst., died from the effects of the wound on Thursday.

A GOOD TIME is in prospect at Black Brook to-night, when there will be a ball at the Temperance Hall in aid of the Black Brook Band. The arrangements are under the competent management of Messrs. J. L. Lockery, H. W. Pomsy and J. J. Melnyk.

REPAIRING TO BEACONS.—The repairs of the Grand Road from Barting Bridge to Gloucester County line will be sold by Supervisor McNaughton, beginning at Barting Bridge next Thursday morning at nine o'clock.

A RIBBON was cut up last Thursday morning at Will Mowatt's grocery and provision store. It was caught by Mr. Andrew Curry the night before last, and the average Miramichal salmon is less than half this weight.

FINGERS INJURED.—Mr. Thos. Wilson was so unfortunate as to have several of his fingers severely jammed while working on board the S. S. Steers Baco on Friday last, but is able to continue at his post.

PIKE AT NELSON.—On Monday last two tremendous hounds were taken by Messrs. Geo. Barhill & Sons, who were employed by, as well as their outbidding, portions of their contents, etc. Five families were thus burnt out.

CHARITERS.—S. S. Coventry, now in port, has been chartered by Mr. Snowball for a second voyage, Miramichi to West Coast of England at 65.

TEMPERANCE.—There is dry humor in Mr. McKinnon's advertisement in another column. He heads it "temperance" and proceeds to tell us about his stock of glassware, earthenware, groceries, etc. He isn't the only man who has started out on the theme of temperance in Chatham and proceeded to give us something quite different, and his joke on certain parties is duly appreciated.

DR. ARTHURS.—It will be seen by the report of Miramichi Presbytery, below, that Joseph McCoy, of Fort Haven, Ont., has been called to the pastorate of St.

also failed to improve the situation. One of the bigger boys, however, was in a field not far away and the alarm reached him and with his assistance a rescue was made.

WIDE AWAKE.—Wide Awake for June might be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Beason's beautiful painting, "The End of a Long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake.

WIND AWAKE.—Wide Awake for June might be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Beason's beautiful painting, "The End of a Long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake.

ONE OF THE 600.—James Johnson, a veteran of the Crimean war, died at Moncton last week. He had been for some time past watchman in the railway shops.

Enrich the Blood by the use of Miller's Beef Iron and Wine, which supplies the necessary blood building material. It is estimated to be nearly a mile in length and already, as the fire is being extinguished the sickening odor of dead animals bodies is being wafted.

THE CATHARIC AND THE NORTH SHORE, etc. FLOUR, TEA, &c.—See the London House advt.

SMOKE THE OREGON, the best ten cent cigar in the market. For sale wholesale and retail at Z. Tingley's, Chatham.

THAT LATE PAPER, the Montreal Transcript, is putting up a new press to meet the ever growing needs of its daily edition.

PROF. CURIE'S CONSUMPTION AND PISO'S REMEDY FOR CATARRH are sold by J. D. R. MacKenzie, Druggist, Chatham.

MR. P. TURNER WILSON and bride who were married at St. John on Tuesday, are attending the congregation of the Holy Trinity Church, Chatham, on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock.

CHATHAM STEAMING RIVER was sold under Mr. Hutchins's mortgage yesterday by Mr. E. Johnson for $1,000. Wm. Murray, Esq., being the purchaser.

AGRICULTURAL.—The Board of Directors of Northumberland Agricultural Society is to meet at the Canada House, Chatham, this Thursday, afternoon at three o'clock.

HALL'S HALL RENOVATOR is free from Alcohol, and that imparts the American hair is scientifically prepared, and will restore gray hair to its original color and vigor.

RICHMOND ROAD repairs are to be sold by supervisor McNaughton on Thursday next, 19th inst., commencing at Dr. Talbot's corner at 10 m.

CLUB MEETING.—We are requested to state that the L. C. Club will meet in their rooms, Goggin Building, on Tuesday evening next.

BROKEN.—The connecting rod of the gang in Platt's mill, Nelson, was broken yesterday, which will cause a delay of a day or two for repairs.

RARE TREAT AHEAD.—The Rev. Scott-Siddons will give an interesting lecture on the Masses in the evening, 18th inst. The world-famed reputation of this beauty and artist needs no comment.

INSURED AT OCEAN.—Mr. Warren C. Winslow has been authorized by the British American Assurance Company to accept all claims of fire risks, have policies and make endorsements, receipts, duty or reference to the head office.

M. A. DUBOIS.—At the Mount Allison College Convocation on Wednesday last week, the degree in course of Master of Arts was conferred upon Rev. Hibbert Baker, B. A., '88, of Derby.

FATAL RESULT.—Angus McInnis, who was shot at Douglassburg on Tuesday last week, as reported in the ADVANCE of 29th inst., died from the effects of the wound on Thursday.

A GOOD TIME is in prospect at Black Brook to-night, when there will be a ball at the Temperance Hall in aid of the Black Brook Band. The arrangements are under the competent management of Messrs. J. L. Lockery, H. W. Pomsy and J. J. Melnyk.

REPAIRING TO BEACONS.—The repairs of the Grand Road from Barting Bridge to Gloucester County line will be sold by Supervisor McNaughton, beginning at Barting Bridge next Thursday morning at nine o'clock.

A RIBBON was cut up last Thursday morning at Will Mowatt's grocery and provision store. It was caught by Mr. Andrew Curry the night before last, and the average Miramichal salmon is less than half this weight.

FINGERS INJURED.—Mr. Thos. Wilson was so unfortunate as to have several of his fingers severely jammed while working on board the S. S. Steers Baco on Friday last, but is able to continue at his post.

PIKE AT NELSON.—On Monday last two tremendous hounds were taken by Messrs. Geo. Barhill & Sons, who were employed by, as well as their outbidding, portions of their contents, etc. Five families were thus burnt out.

CHARITERS.—S. S. Coventry, now in port, has been chartered by Mr. Snowball for a second voyage, Miramichi to West Coast of England at 65.

TEMPERANCE.—There is dry humor in Mr. McKinnon's advertisement in another column. He heads it "temperance" and proceeds to tell us about his stock of glassware, earthenware, groceries, etc. He isn't the only man who has started out on the theme of temperance in Chatham and proceeded to give us something quite different, and his joke on certain parties is duly appreciated.

DR. ARTHURS.—It will be seen by the report of Miramichi Presbytery, below, that Joseph McCoy, of Fort Haven, Ont., has been called to the pastorate of St.

also failed to improve the situation. One of the bigger boys, however, was in a field not far away and the alarm reached him and with his assistance a rescue was made.

WIDE AWAKE.—Wide Awake for June might be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Beason's beautiful painting, "The End of a Long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake.

WIND AWAKE.—Wide Awake for June might be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Beason's beautiful painting, "The End of a Long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake.

ONE OF THE 600.—James Johnson, a veteran of the Crimean war, died at Moncton last week. He had been for some time past watchman in the railway shops.

Enrich the Blood by the use of Miller's Beef Iron and Wine, which supplies the necessary blood building material. It is estimated to be nearly a mile in length and already, as the fire is being extinguished the sickening odor of dead animals bodies is being wafted.

THE CATHARIC AND THE NORTH SHORE, etc. FLOUR, TEA, &c.—See the London House advt.

SMOKE THE OREGON, the best ten cent cigar in the market. For sale wholesale and retail at Z. Tingley's, Chatham.

THAT LATE PAPER, the Montreal Transcript, is putting up a new press to meet the ever growing needs of its daily edition.

evangelical. He was greatly esteemed by his congregation. In the discharge of his pastoral office he was faithful, tender and sympathetic.

WIDE AWAKE.—Wide Awake for June might be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Beason's beautiful painting, "The End of a Long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake.

WIND AWAKE.—Wide Awake for June might be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Beason's beautiful painting, "The End of a Long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake.

ONE OF THE 600.—James Johnson, a veteran of the Crimean war, died at Moncton last week. He had been for some time past watchman in the railway shops.

Enrich the Blood by the use of Miller's Beef Iron and Wine, which supplies the necessary blood building material. It is estimated to be nearly a mile in length and already, as the fire is being extinguished the sickening odor of dead animals bodies is being wafted.

THE CATHARIC AND THE NORTH SHORE, etc. FLOUR, TEA, &c.—See the London House advt.

SMOKE THE OREGON, the best ten cent cigar in the market. For sale wholesale and retail at Z. Tingley's, Chatham.

THAT LATE PAPER, the Montreal Transcript, is putting up a new press to meet the ever growing needs of its daily edition.

PROF. CURIE'S CONSUMPTION AND PISO'S REMEDY FOR CATARRH are sold by J. D. R. MacKenzie, Druggist, Chatham.

MR. P. TURNER WILSON and bride who were married at St. John on Tuesday, are attending the congregation of the Holy Trinity Church, Chatham, on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock.

CHATHAM STEAMING RIVER was sold under Mr. Hutchins's mortgage yesterday by Mr. E. Johnson for $1,000. Wm. Murray, Esq., being the purchaser.

AGRICULTURAL.—The Board of Directors of Northumberland Agricultural Society is to meet at the Canada House, Chatham, this Thursday, afternoon at three o'clock.

HALL'S HALL RENOVATOR is free from Alcohol, and that imparts the American hair is scientifically prepared, and will restore gray hair to its original color and vigor.

RICHMOND ROAD repairs are to be sold by supervisor McNaughton on Thursday next, 19th inst., commencing at Dr. Talbot's corner at 10 m.

CLUB MEETING.—We are requested to state that the L. C. Club will meet in their rooms, Goggin Building, on Tuesday evening next.

BROKEN.—The connecting rod of the gang in Platt's mill, Nelson, was broken yesterday, which will cause a delay of a day or two for repairs.

RARE TREAT AHEAD.—The Rev. Scott-Siddons will give an interesting lecture on the Masses in the evening, 18th inst. The world-famed reputation of this beauty and artist needs no comment.

INSURED AT OCEAN.—Mr. Warren C. Winslow has been authorized by the British American Assurance Company to accept all claims of fire risks, have policies and make endorsements, receipts, duty or reference to the head office.

M. A. DUBOIS.—At the Mount Allison College Convocation on Wednesday last week, the degree in course of Master of Arts was conferred upon Rev. Hibbert Baker, B. A., '88, of Derby.

FATAL RESULT.—Angus McInnis, who was shot at Douglassburg on Tuesday last week, as reported in the ADVANCE of 29th inst., died from the effects of the wound on Thursday.

A GOOD TIME is in prospect at Black Brook to-night, when there will be a ball at the Temperance Hall in aid of the Black Brook Band. The arrangements are under the competent management of Messrs. J. L. Lockery, H. W. Pomsy and J. J. Melnyk.

REPAIRING TO BEACONS.—The repairs of the Grand Road from Barting Bridge to Gloucester County line will be sold by Supervisor McNaughton, beginning at Barting Bridge next Thursday morning at nine o'clock.

A RIBBON was cut up last Thursday morning at Will Mowatt's grocery and provision store. It was caught by Mr. Andrew Curry the night before last, and the average Miramichal salmon is less than half this weight.

FINGERS INJURED.—Mr. Thos. Wilson was so unfortunate as to have several of his fingers severely jammed while working on board the S. S. Steers Baco on Friday last, but is able to continue at his post.

PIKE AT NELSON.—On Monday last two tremendous hounds were taken by Messrs. Geo. Barhill & Sons, who were employed by, as well as their outbidding, portions of their contents, etc. Five families were thus burnt out.

CHARITERS.—S. S. Coventry, now in port, has been chartered by Mr. Snowball for a second voyage, Miramichi to West Coast of England at 65.

TEMPERANCE.—There is dry humor in Mr. McKinnon's advertisement in another column. He heads it "temperance" and proceeds to tell us about his stock of glassware, earthenware, groceries, etc. He isn't the only man who has started out on the theme of temperance in Chatham and proceeded to give us something quite different, and his joke on certain parties is duly appreciated.

DR. ARTHURS.—It will be seen by the report of Miramichi Presbytery, below, that Joseph McCoy, of Fort Haven, Ont., has been called to the pastorate of St.

also failed to improve the situation. One of the bigger boys, however, was in a field not far away and the alarm reached him and with his assistance a rescue was made.

WIDE AWAKE.—Wide Awake for June might be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Beason's beautiful painting, "The End of a Long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake.

WIND AWAKE.—Wide Awake for June might be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Beason's beautiful painting, "The End of a Long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake.

ONE OF THE 600.—James Johnson, a veteran of the Crimean war, died at Moncton last week. He had been for some time past watchman in the railway shops.

Enrich the Blood by the use of Miller's Beef Iron and Wine, which supplies the necessary blood building material. It is estimated to be nearly a mile in length and already, as the fire is being extinguished the sickening odor of dead animals bodies is being wafted.

THE CATHARIC AND THE NORTH SHORE, etc. FLOUR, TEA, &c.—See the London House advt.

SMOKE THE OREGON, the best ten cent cigar in the market. For sale wholesale and retail at Z. Tingley's, Chatham.

THAT LATE PAPER, the Montreal Transcript, is putting up a new press to meet the ever growing needs of its daily edition.

Baltimore say they sell more liquor on Sunday than on any other day. This is a crying shame, and somebody is responsible for this state of things.

WIDE AWAKE.—Wide Awake for June might be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Beason's beautiful painting, "The End of a Long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake.

WIND AWAKE.—Wide Awake for June might be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Beason's beautiful painting, "The End of a Long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake.

ONE OF THE 600.—James Johnson, a veteran of the Crimean war, died at Moncton last week. He had been for some time past watchman in the railway shops.

Enrich the Blood by the use of Miller's Beef Iron and Wine, which supplies the necessary blood building material. It is estimated to be nearly a mile in length and already, as the fire is being extinguished the sickening odor of dead animals bodies is being wafted.

THE CATHARIC AND THE NORTH SHORE, etc. FLOUR, TEA, &c.—See the London House advt.

SMOKE THE OREGON, the best ten cent cigar in the market. For sale wholesale and retail at Z. Tingley's, Chatham.

THAT LATE PAPER, the Montreal Transcript, is putting up a new press to meet the ever growing needs of its daily edition.

PROF. CURIE'S CONSUMPTION AND PISO'S REMEDY FOR CATARRH are sold by J. D. R. MacKenzie, Druggist, Chatham.

MR. P. TURNER WILSON and bride who were married at St. John on Tuesday, are attending the congregation of the Holy Trinity Church, Chatham, on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock.

CHATHAM STEAMING RIVER was sold under Mr. Hutchins's mortgage yesterday by Mr. E. Johnson for $1,000. Wm. Murray, Esq., being the purchaser.

AGRICULTURAL.—The Board of Directors of Northumberland Agricultural Society is to meet at the Canada House, Chatham, this Thursday, afternoon at three o'clock.

HALL'S HALL RENOVATOR is free from Alcohol, and that imparts the American hair is scientifically prepared, and will restore gray hair to its original color and vigor.

RICHMOND ROAD repairs are to be sold by supervisor McNaughton on Thursday next, 19th inst., commencing at Dr. Talbot's corner at 10 m.

CLUB MEETING.—We are requested to state that the L. C. Club will meet in their rooms, Goggin Building, on Tuesday evening next.

BROKEN.—The connecting rod of the gang in Platt's mill, Nelson, was broken yesterday, which will cause a delay of a day or two for repairs.

RARE TREAT AHEAD.—The Rev. Scott-Siddons will give an interesting lecture on the Masses in the evening, 18th inst. The world-famed reputation of this beauty and artist needs no comment.

INSURED AT OCEAN.—Mr. Warren C. Winslow has been authorized by the British American Assurance Company to accept all claims of fire risks, have policies and make endorsements, receipts, duty or reference to the head office.

M. A. DUBOIS.—At the Mount Allison College Convocation on Wednesday last week, the degree in course of Master of Arts was conferred upon Rev. Hibbert Baker, B. A., '88, of Derby.

FATAL RESULT.—Angus McInnis, who was shot at Douglassburg on Tuesday last week, as reported in the ADVANCE of 29th inst., died from the effects of the wound on Thursday.

A GOOD TIME is in prospect at Black Brook to-night, when there will be a ball at the Temperance Hall in aid of the Black Brook Band. The arrangements are under the competent management of Messrs. J. L. Lockery, H. W. Pomsy and J. J. Melnyk.

REPAIRING TO BEACONS.—The repairs of the Grand Road from Barting Bridge to Gloucester County line will be sold by Supervisor McNaughton, beginning at Barting Bridge next Thursday morning at nine o'clock.

A RIBBON was cut up last Thursday morning at Will Mowatt's grocery and provision store. It was caught by Mr. Andrew Curry the night before last, and the average Miramichal salmon is less than half this weight.

FINGERS INJURED.—Mr. Thos. Wilson was so unfortunate as to have several of his fingers severely jammed while working on board the S. S. Steers Baco on Friday last, but is able to continue at his post.

PIKE AT NELSON.—On Monday last two tremendous hounds were taken by Messrs. Geo. Barhill & Sons, who were employed by, as well as their outbidding, portions of their contents, etc. Five families were thus burnt out.

CHARITERS.—S. S. Coventry, now in port, has been chartered by Mr. Snowball for a second voyage, Miramichi to West Coast of England at 65.

TEMPERANCE.—There is dry humor in Mr. McKinnon's advertisement in another column. He heads it "temperance" and proceeds to tell us about his stock of glassware, earthenware, groceries, etc. He isn't the only man who has started out on the theme of temperance in Chatham and proceeded to give us something quite different, and his joke on certain parties is duly appreciated.

DR. ARTHURS.—It will be seen by the report of Miramichi Presbytery, below, that Joseph McCoy, of Fort Haven, Ont., has been called to the pastorate of St.

also failed to improve the situation. One of the bigger boys, however, was in a field not far away and the alarm reached him and with his assistance a rescue was made.

WIDE AWAKE.—Wide Awake for June might be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Beason's beautiful painting, "The End of a Long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake.

WIND AWAKE.—Wide Awake for June might be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Beason's beautiful painting, "The End of a Long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake.

ONE OF THE 600.—James Johnson, a veteran of the Crimean war, died at Moncton last week. He had been for some time past watchman in the railway shops.

Enrich the Blood by the use of Miller's Beef Iron and Wine, which supplies the necessary blood building material. It is estimated to be nearly a mile in length and already, as the fire is being extinguished the sickening odor of dead animals bodies is being wafted.

THE CATHARIC AND THE NORTH SHORE, etc. FLOUR, TEA, &c.—See the London House advt.

SMOKE THE OREGON, the best ten cent cigar in the market. For sale wholesale and retail at Z. Tingley's, Chatham.

THAT LATE PAPER, the Montreal Transcript, is putting up a new press to meet the ever growing needs of its daily edition.

astarh. Or into pneumonia. Or consumption. Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself.

WIDE AWAKE.—Wide Awake for June might be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Beason's beautiful painting, "The End of a Long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake.

WIND AWAKE.—Wide Awake for June might be called a "true story number." It opens with a reproduction of Henry Beason's beautiful painting, "The End of a Long Day," photographed especially for Wide Awake.

ONE OF THE 600.—James Johnson, a veteran of the Crimean war, died at Moncton last week. He had been for some time past watchman in the railway shops.

Enrich the Blood by the use of Miller's Beef Iron and Wine, which supplies the necessary blood building material. It is estimated to be nearly a mile in length and already, as the fire is being extinguished the sickening odor of dead animals bodies is being wafted.

THE CATHARIC AND THE NORTH SHORE, etc. FLOUR, TEA, &c.—See the London House advt.

SMOKE THE OREGON, the best ten cent cigar in the market. For sale wholesale and retail at Z. Tingley's, Chatham.

THAT LATE PAPER, the Montreal Transcript, is putting up a new press to meet the ever growing needs of its daily edition.

PROF. CURIE'S CONSUMPTION AND PISO'S REMEDY FOR CATARRH are sold by J. D. R. MacKenzie, Druggist, Chatham.

MR. P. TURNER WILSON and bride who were married at St. John on Tuesday, are attending the congregation of the Holy Trinity Church, Chatham, on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock.

CHATHAM STEAMING RIVER was sold under Mr. Hutchins's mortgage yesterday by Mr. E. Johnson for $1,000. Wm. Murray, Esq., being the purchaser.

AGRICULTURAL.—The Board of Directors of Northumberland Agricultural Society is to meet at the Canada House, Chatham, this Thursday, afternoon at three o'clock.

HALL'S HALL RENOVATOR is free from Alcohol, and that imparts the American hair is scientifically prepared, and will restore gray hair to its original color and vigor.

RICHMOND ROAD repairs are to be sold by supervisor McNaughton on Thursday next, 19th inst., commencing at Dr. Talbot's corner at 10 m.

CLUB MEETING.—We are requested to state that the L. C. Club will meet in their rooms, Goggin Building, on Tuesday evening next.

BROKEN.—The connecting rod of the gang in Platt's mill, Nelson, was broken yesterday, which will cause a delay of a day or two for repairs.

RARE TREAT AHEAD.—The Rev. Scott-Siddons will give an interesting lecture on the Masses in the evening, 18th inst. The world-famed reputation of this beauty and artist needs no comment.

INSURED AT OCEAN.—Mr. Warren C. Winslow has been authorized by the British American Assurance Company to accept all claims of fire risks, have policies and make endorsements, receipts, duty or reference to the head office.

M. A. DUBOIS.—At the Mount Allison College Convocation on Wednesday last week, the degree in course of Master of Arts was conferred upon Rev. Hibbert Baker, B. A., '88, of Derby.

FATAL RESULT.—Angus McInnis, who was shot at Douglassburg on Tuesday last week, as reported in the ADVANCE of 29th inst., died from the effects of the wound on Thursday.

A GOOD TIME is in prospect at Black Brook to-night, when there will be a ball at the Temperance Hall in aid of the Black Brook Band. The arrangements are under the competent management of Messrs. J. L. Lockery, H. W. Pomsy and J. J. Melnyk.

REPAIRING TO BEACONS.—The repairs of the Grand Road from Barting Bridge to Gloucester County line will be sold by Supervisor McNaughton, beginning at Barting Bridge next Thursday morning at nine o'clock.

A RIBBON was cut up last Thursday morning at Will Mowatt's grocery and provision store. It was caught by Mr. Andrew Curry the night before last, and the average Miramichal salmon is less than half this weight.

FINGERS INJURED.—Mr. Thos. Wilson was so unfortunate as to have several of his fingers severely jammed while working on board the S. S. Steers Baco on Friday last, but is able to continue at his post.

PIKE AT NELSON.—On Monday last two tremendous hounds were taken by Messrs. Geo. Barhill & Sons