"SMART SET" MAKING

MARRIAGE A MOCKERY

Dr. Hanson Says Epidemic of Licentiousness Among Society Leaders is Filling Divorce Courts.

BOSTON, April 4.—Declaring that the leaders of American society have brought about an epidemic of licentiousness which even national laws would be powerless to remedy, the Rev. Dr. Hanson preached a sensational sermon against divorce in Tremont Temple.

His subject was "The First Marriage, and he said in part:—
"For that first marriage, when Adam fell into a deep sleep and God took one of his ribs, was a woman made to order—and it was the only woman God ever did make.

"I don't know what Adam thought when he looked upon that magnificent specimen of womanhood which God had himself made, but I am prepared to believe that it was a case of love at first sight.

"What a change from that wedding, naturalness, to the elaborate displays of today. The more vulgar ostentation there is about the wedding, the more natural course of events the greater burden of the sin should be for her to suffer.

"Today the magistrates are overlooking the preachers.
"We have a smart set whose filthy rulers gives them a sort of respectability. Their love for fresh artificialities are what keeps the divorce courts busy.

"There are disgraced judges on the bench, who are willing to lend themselves to base usages. There are mercenary preachers who are ready to satisfy the demands of the libertines. They are states whose statutes are framed so as to invite the libertines from other states to come and evade their lawful responsibilities.

"The cure is not in state legislation nor in national laws; it is in the cultivation of a public spirit which shall scourge with the lash of scorn the libertines who lead American society.

"It should brand with infamy the author, albeit a woman, of that book which would, by trial marriage and divorce, lower the holy institution of matrimony to the standard of the bazaar.

"We are in the midst of an epidemic of licentiousness. Divorces have doubled in the last 15 years in this country. Do you think that conditions are any harder today than they were 15 years ago?

"Do you remember years ago when you were courting your sweetheart, when you gave her bouquets and filled her 'boudoir' with roses, when you wrote romances of poetry to her on paper sent with music; do you remember those days when you made a humdrum of your love?

"And now you come home like a howling cyclone and yell out because dinner isn't ready. And when it does come, you shout that it isn't fit to eat, and that you'll go out to a hash-house. Do you wonder that your wife sometimes wishes she had never seen you, or that she thinks of other men?"

"My good woman, for I hope you are good, greet your husband with a flower in your hair as you used to do. Make his home-coming a joy. Make the home a little heaven on earth. Then he won't go to the saloon or think of other women."

TWO YOUNG GERMAN BOYS COMMIT SUICIDE

BERLIN, April 4.—The suicide of two schoolboys, Rudolf Wiesner, aged sixteen, and Waldemar Draber, aged fifteen, in a railway car between Breslau and Lissa, once more draws public attention to the appalling number of juvenile Germans who commit self destruction.

Both boys left letters explaining that they were tired of life and despaired of attaining happiness. They wrote that the outlook appeared so gloomy that they were convinced that life was not worth the living.

One of the principal causes of the increasing number of juvenile suicides appears to be the way in which the children are systematically overworked in the schools.

WOMEN RAILWAY EMPLOYEES.

The number of women employed on the Russian railways is increasing. According to the latest returns, there are now working on the twenty-five Russian State railways no fewer than 22,000 women as gatekeepers, clerks, telegraphers, etc. The average wage varies from 120 to 135 roubles yearly ($65 to $70). The extremes are great. Thus, the women clerks receive on an average from 450 to 460 roubles, or about $220, while the women attending at the station are paid only forty roubles, or about $19.50 a year, in addition to free lodging and a few extras.

INDIGESTIBLE, BUT NOT OTHERWISE DANGEROUS

Polish Citizen Received What He Thought Was a Bomb.

PARIS, April 4.—A Polish gentleman with a long experience of bombs in his native country which some years ago he left for Paris the other day put in an appearance at the police station agitated with fear. He had received a parcel containing a small barrel charged with dynamite which was obviously an infernal machine. Several policemen used to handling dynamite were at once sent round to the Police's house and carried the bomb away with due precautions to the municipal laboratory of chemistry which is fitted up for the examination of such engines. The machine, gingerly manipulated, was put into a pair of water and finally opened with every care. It was found to contain a greenish black oily substance, consisting of small round pellets in a thick liquid. A chemical analysis was being begun of a small fragment of the unknown matter when an assistant in a flash recognized it. The murderous engine was only a bomb of caviar which is, of course, indigestible, but not otherwise deadly. Manipulation in the laboratory, however, had rendered this particular caviar unobtainable.

PRODUCED THE SKULL OF THE MURDERED WOMAN

BERLIN, April 4.—A curious murder trial is on the docket here. It is the case of Johann Friedrich Mueller who is already under sentence of death for the murder of an eleven year old school girl, but who has been placed in the dock to answer the charge of killing a woman, his landlady, eight years ago.

The dramatic feature of the present charge against Mueller is that during his trial for killing the schoolgirl the prosecutor suddenly produced the skull of the landlady and asked the prisoner to place his hand upon it and swear that he had not murdered the woman. Mueller broke down completely and confessed, so it is said. He is also suspected of another crime—the murder of a Bavarian telephone girl with whom he had been intimate.

"Absent minded," would be the mildest term one could use to apply to the man who put all the fuel in his furnace and neglected to apply the match. The merchant who fills his store with goods and does not advertise has the disease in a more dangerous form.—Prosperity.
