DE GEER-TRUENMAN.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of E. P. Trueman, West End, at 8.30 last evening, when his daughter, Miss May, was united in marriage with Gerard De Geer, formerly of Sweden, but now of this city. The bride was given away by her father, Rev. G. P. Scott, the officiating minister. The double parlor at the bride's home was prettily decorated for the occasion. The ceremony was performed under a large floral bell. Miss Edith Trueman was maid of honor. The bride was attired in a handsome gown of cream tulle and carried a bouquet of white carnations and white roses. The maid of honor wore a costume of cream lace and pink carnations and pink roses. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only the immediate friends and relatives. Among the guests were Mrs. Amos Connor, of Boston, Mass., and Mrs. Agnes Steadman, of Montreal. Many beautiful gifts in cut glass and silver were received among others being substantial remembrances from the bride's friends in Boston, Montreal and Toronto.

Among the presents there were a couple of checks—one from Sweden and one from Saskatchewan—also a valuable box of linen from Sweden, and other valuables, including a locket and chain from the groom's mother and a check from his father, also a necklace from his aunt.

Mr. De Geer is a chemist in the employ of the Cushing Sulphite Fibre Company.

The bride wore a handsome costume of crepe de chene over white silk, with a hat to match. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was supported by Dennis O'Keefe, brother of the bride. Many pretty and valuable presents were received, including several costly gifts of cut glass and silver. The groom's present to the bride was a diamond ring, to the bridesmaid a signet ring, and to the groomsmen a carbuncle pin. A sumptuous wedding breakfast was served, and the young couple left for Boston, where they will make their future home.

The groom will of friends is evinced by a large number of presents, including a check for fifty pounds from a friend in England. After the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Kirby left by train for a trip over the I. C. R. to Quebec and Montreal, where they will arrive here late in the evening. Mr. Kirby is a graduate of Mount Allison university, and is now in the service of the National Dairy Association. He will go to Saratoga, where Mr. Kirby is to attend the National Dairy Association. PRESBYTERIAN ASSEMBLY IN WINNIPEG

Church Union to the Front Again

SOME BIG QUESTIONS

Delegates Note Many Changes in Western Metropolis—Retiring Moderator's Sermon

WINNIPEG, June 3.—This city welcomed the general assembly for the third time in its history. In 1887 just before the Queen's jubilee, the commissioners met here and they saw a raw city, which had barely survived the strain of boom and speculation. Then again in 1897, just before the diamond jubilee, they came back and beheld Winnipeg taking a fresh grip on the things and they can note without difficulty the changes that are making in this metropolitan city.

Of all the changes which have taken place during the decade which is most gratifying although the most natural is the remarkable growth of the church and the extension of the activity not only in the city, but throughout the whole of the country. The church is in a strong position and realizes its strength. It realizes also, however, that it has a long way to go. It is a strength which made it powerful bring increased responsibilities and sterner duties. The necessity of meeting these responsibilities and duties gives added importance to the deliberations of the assembly and the commissioners have no light burden. It is their duty to administer a trust beside which that of a provincial government does not seem large, and they are called upon to transact within the ten days an amount of business which would occupy the attorney of a legislature for at least a month.

There are many big questions that will come before the present commissioners. Church union will be one of these. It is predicted that it will cause a keen discussion. The position of Queen's University and its future relations to the church will be the basis of another debate. Social and moral reform has become more an important branch of work in Canada during the past few years and the report of Rev. Dr. Sinclair, general secretary of that department, will be decidedly interesting, especially on account of the advances which have taken place in connection with the preservation of the Lord's day and the extension of temperance. The theme of the sermon of the retiring moderator, Rev. Dr. Robert Campbell, preacher of the evening service, was "The Ministry." His discourse was based on John xviii, 37-38; Acts, i, 28. He declared that the business of the church of the living God, which the apostle described as the pillar and ground of truth is "to ascertain what is true, to proclaim it and maintain it."

The preacher said in part:

We accept the New Testament writings as affording an adequate account of the Person and work of the Lord Jesus Christ. The testimony is born to their genuineness such as can be produced in favor of no other ancient document whatever. It is a notable fact that the gospel as at first spoken during the lifetime of the apostles seems attested by the literary form which it assumed when it was embraced afterwards in the written word. It will not do for us, therefore, to deny tradition altogether, to deny its undoubted influence or even its right to the consideration in framing our creed. John assures us that all was not written that might have been written concerning Jesus Christ, and we may go so far as to admit that if the Church of Rome could really prove that the deposit of truth which has never been written in its keeping, there would be no help for us but to accept it. But the author of the third gospel in his significant introduction gives it as a reason for writing it that his friends might know the certainty concerning the things he was taught about Christ, implying that the period had come when it would be no longer safe to trust to tradition. Two other remarks are in order here—the first that tradition shall not teach anything contrary to the written word, and secondly, that the Church of Rome, assuming its view has been recent to its duty in falling so far from the truth, has committed to its care, one important dogma authoritatively seeing the light only in 1854, and another in 1870.

Rev. F. B. Duval, pastor Knox church was unanimously elected moderator and the formal announcement of election was received with great enthusiasm.

Murder Committed

Near Haileybury, Ont

HAILEYBURY, June 3.—Murder was committed at Reynolds' construction camp, troups Falls, about 125 miles north of here, Saturday night. Fritz Young, a boatman, of Stanhope, Quebec, is dead of his wounds, and Thomas A. Wright, foreman, in the employ of the Reynolds Company, is under arrest, charged with the murder. Two other men, who were in the camp, Michael Morris and James Quinn, are also charged with aiding and abetting the murder. The three prisoners are now awaiting trial and are confined in jail at New Liskeilly. The reports probably originated from the fact that the man mentioned have been thenceforward under arrest for the theft of a Canada News box.

Fishery Officer Billings, who is ever on the alert, visited Digdeguash river last week in quest of illegal dynamiters. It has been reported that Italian navies on the Shore Line Railway were engaged in dynamiting the river. Officer Billings found a number of the foreigners engaged in washing their dirty linen in the river, but beyond this they were doing no injury to the waters. Residents in the vicinity also declared that no dynamiting was being done. The reports probably originated from the fact that the Italians were shooting rabbits in the vicinity of the river—Boston.

The cost of entertaining the Union of Municipalities delegates while in the city last month for their annual convention was only about $10, according to a statement given out by Mayor Chestnut this morning. The greater part of the cost was incurred in the banquet given at the Queen Hotel, which cost almost $300. The other expenses were for orchestra at the banquet and for carriages in the city and to the railroad station. The city bears one-half of the expense and the county the other half, under a joint arrangement—Gleaner.

The many friends of Rev. Canon Montgomery will be sorry to learn that he met with a serious accident last evening which will cause him to be laid up for a few days at least. The Canon was bathing a wound on his horse's leg above the fetlock when the horse suddenly plunged and falling upon him, broke two of his ribs. Dr. Crockett was called in and the Canon is resting easier today and expects to be around again before long—Gleaner.
