DYKEMAN'S

A Great Showing of Summer Shirtwaists
for Friday Shoppers

We have a large variety of these made in the very latest styles, with long or short sleeves, with fancy Swiss embroidered fronts or tailored effect, in fact every style that fashion has decreed for the summer.

WHITE LAWN WAISTS, with handsome Swiss fronts in neat designs either long or short sleeves, at prices ranging from 50 cents up to $1.50.

At $1.00, a special line which we are offering. Many of these waists were as high as $2.50 each. Some are closed in the back others in the front, they all have the Gibson effect over the shoulder and are perfect fitting, the fronts are handsomely embroidered. In fact many of our customers who have purchased one of these waists already have returned to procure a second and even a third waist from this lot on account of the great value they are and the good fit of them.

TAILORED WAISTS with starched collar and cuffs, perfect fitting at $1.10, $1.20 and $2.00. These waists are made from white lawn drill and jackonette.

20th Century Styles

are far removed from the common place—just as the fashionable garb of our grandfathers was distinctly different from the sombre, shapeless apparel to the Quakers.

"20th Century" styles are full of "character." They have the clean-cut elegance that mark care and skill bestowed by tailors who "know how."

We invite you to inspect them. We want YOUR judgment, too.

THE WEATHER

Martime—Light to moderate variable winds, a few scattered showers or thunderstorms, but mostly fine and warm.

LOCAL NEWS

"Pidgeon's Special" is the best and lowest priced reliable footwear.

The best of weather prevails at Fredericton today and the lovers of horse racing are delighted.

At the regular monthly meeting of Saint John Court of Canadian Order of Foresters, to be held in the Court room, Orange building, Germain street, on Friday evening next, the newly-elected member on the executive for the dominion, R. W. Wignome, will be present and address the meeting.

One of our enterprising young men, Mr. Stanley D. Carr, has recently opened a Fruit and Confectionery Store at 7 Waterloo street. The residents of this section of the city will appreciate Mr. Carr's enterprise, as they will find all fruits and confectionery carried by him of the very best. At this time of the year Mr. Carr keeps a good stock of cooled Mineral Waters, Pure Ice Cream, and in connection with his store has a comfortable Ice Cream Parlor. Customers will find Mr. Carr's prices most reasonable in every line. Mr. Carr is a most obliging and courteous young man, and we wish him every success in his new undertaking.

JAMES BRENNAN FINDS THAT HOUSES ARE SCARCE

Has Difficulty in Securing Quarters in Which to Conduct His Business.

There seems to be no person in the city more inconvenienced than James Brennan, the well known boarding house proprietor, and from the present outlook it seems that he will be a building of Charlotte street, but has been forced to vacate on account of the building being converted into lawling alleys. He hunted the city over in search of a suitable place, and finally succeeded in a sub-division of the house on the corner of Broad and Wentworth street from Hattie Robinson. The house is a boarding house, and Mr. Brennan when he arrived at the house Friday evening with a load of furniture found that Constable Thomas Gibson had locked the house up. Brennan could not get in, and was forced to remain on the street with his furniture. Mr. Brennan said that he was informed that Mr. Jones had sub-let the house from the Robinsons. There will be trouble.

PERSONAL

The many friends of Mrs. Ada M. O'Dell will regret very much to learn of her departure on this morning, as she was on a visit to the far west, Chicago, New York and Gary, Ind., of an indefinite period. She takes with her the best wishes of all for a pleasant, safe and beneficial sojourn and a speedy return.

Miss Elizabeth S. Colwell, daughter of Mr. W. H. Colwell, arrived on the Calvin Austin yesterday from Boston where she graduated from the Emerson College of Oratory. Miss Colwell has accepted a position on the teaching staff of Pennington College, New Jersey, as preceptor. She will go there in September.

Mrs. R. Macdonough and her son Vance arrived on the steamer Calvin Austin. Mrs. S. K. Smith and daughter also arrived accompanied by her sister, Miss Laura Gleason, who has been spending the winter with her. They will spend the summer with their mother, Mrs. C. Gleason, Chipman Hill.

Messrs. George Ryan, Louis McDonald, William and Patrick Ryan left today on a fishing expedition to McDonald's Lake, where they will spend the remainder of the week.

Miss Mary Leighton arrived yesterday from Boston, where she has been visiting friends for the past three months.

Mrs. W. W. Fawcett, of Sackville, came in on the C. P. R. yesterday to attend the funeral of her brother, the late John Fawcett Goodwin. Mrs. Fawcett is the guest of E. A. Goodwin, King St. East.

CASE AGAINST AMELIA MUST BE GONE OVER AGAIN

She Was, by Mistake, Accused of Selling Liquor on Monday Instead of Sunday.

In the police court this morning one drunk was fined $8 or two months jail. The case against Amelia Francis, charged with an illegal sale of liquor, resumed, and English Jack Johnson was taken from jail to give evidence. The case has been tried as happening on a Monday, and all the witnesses swore that they did not get liquor in the colored woman's house on the day in question. The matter took a decided change when Johnson put the officers right by saying it was not on Monday but Sunday when the liquor was sold and partaken of by those who had previously given evidence. The charge was made new and all the witnesses will be called on again to give evidence on Monday next.

In the court this morning Amelia took the stand and said she sold beer without a license, as Inspector Jones told her she might as long as she kept an orderly house.

PROBATE COURT

Estate of David H. Anderson, of the Parish of Miramichi, gentleman. Return of citation for leave to sell the real estate of which there are a large number of different parcels in consequence of a deficiency of the personality to pay the debts. Leave to sell granted up to an amount sufficient to pay the debts. Mr. S. A. M. Skinner, proctor. Other counsel was present to represent one of the creditors.

Estate of Elizabeth H. Macaulay, widow: Return of citation for appointment of Mildred T. Macaulay, one of the daughters, for administration. At the hearing it was extended that the money, under $300, which at the time of Mrs. Macaulay's death was in the credit in the Savings Bank really belonged to her husband, the late William Macaulay, formerly tutor, in what may be left among the children, thus disposing of both estates. Adjudgment was made pending settlement. Mr. Homer D. Forbes, proctor for Mildred T. Macaulay and others. Mr. J. King Kelly, proctor for George Alexander Macaulay and others.

Estate of Hannah McGuire, widow: Petition of Thomas McGuire, laborer, a seeking for administration. The deceased having died intestate. Administration granted, as prayed for, to the petitioner. Personal property, $200. Mr. Daniel Mullin, K. C., proctor.

WEDDINGS

HENNESSY—CAVANAUGH.

A pretty wedding took place at five forty-five this morning in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, when Miss Florence Cavanaugh was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Hennessy. The bride was Miss Loretta Cavanaugh, sister of the bride, while Mr. Herbert Cavanaugh supported the groom. The bride was attired in a suit of cream serge with a picture hat to match, and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the bride's parents where a wedding breakfast was served.

The bride received many useful presents, including a substantial casket from the groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold locket and chain.

After the ceremony the bridal party the Boston express for an extended trip through the principal cities of Maine. Mr. and Mrs. Hennessy will reside in Bangor, Me.

DOHERTY—LOGAN.

At six o'clock this morning a pretty event took place in St. Peter's church, when Rev. Fr. E. Duke united in marriage Miss Eleanor May Logan, eldest daughter of Mrs. Michael Harrison, to Stephen Joseph Doherty, of the South End. The couple were unattended.

The bride looked charming in a suit of blue broad cloth. She carried a white prayer book. Mr. and Mrs. Doherty were the recipients of a number of handsome presents including cut glass and silver, also a parrot lamp from the groom's fellow employees in the Haley Bros. factory. They will reside at 42 Broad street.

BIG STRIKE TONIGHT.

PITTSBURG, June 30.—At midnight tonight 10,000 skilled workmen, members of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, who are employed by the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company in various plants throughout Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia and Indiana, will quit work. At that hour the "open shop" order of the company becomes effective.

Your Clothes--

Money Will Go Farther at the C. B. Pidgeon--

Store Than at Any Other Store

in St. John

You know why. The C. B. Pidgeon store at the corner of Main and Bridge streets, gives you more for the money because more expenses are considerably lower.

Why pay more than Pidgeon's popular prices because other dealers on account of more expensive locations, are obliged to ask higher prices.

Pidgeon's Special Shoes for men and women, priced from $1.45 to $4.85, mean a saving of 10 per cent. to 25 per cent. on every pair.

Pidgeon's high grade Men's Suits, priced from $4.95 to $18.45, afford the same liberal savings.

Pidgeon's Made-to-order Suits, from $16.00 to $25.00, offer the same advantages and inducements.

Many extra June values in reasonable furnishings are also open for your inspection.
