The Board of Public Safety at a short meeting last night dealt with several muters of routine. The board decided to repair the exhibition buildings and paint them. It was also decided to have the policemen pay for the making of their summer uniforms, the city supplying the cloth. The decided upon.

"It occurred to me that Gin Pills would help her and so advised her.
This was a happy thought, for my wife wrote back to say she was trying Gin pills. Were doing her good, and the second, that the swollen joints were fast disappearing. Also, her general health and color was vastly improved. Now, she cannot say too much he flavor of Gin Pills. My daughter has also derived much benefit from their use."

well demonstrated in The Legend of Midas, and those who were under the impression that Pathe possessed the secret exclusively for this branch of photographic art were greatly surprised. The Garibaldean Boy as a war picture and Mr. Jones' Gout as a comedy are among the best that have been seen in many months.

THE ORPHEUM'S SHOW.

Henry and Gill easily came up to expectations last evening, and the large audiences enjoyed their act and singing exceedingly. This couple are refined and talented entertainers in every sense of the word, and as singers and actors really excel. Mr. Henry has a baritone which gives evidence of much training, and with a natural beauty of tone his singing is very effective. Miss Gill's voice is really a pleasure to listen to, and one might be enjoying a first class concert programme for all one could tell by the excellent renderings of the lady. The act combines comedy and drama in a manner which held the attention of the audience throughout. The picture programme is so good now that it alone is sufficient to attract the matronage without the vaudevillo
