Some of us have seen the noted picture which bears the title, "Christ or Diana?". The central figure is a beautiful girl, with one of the sweetest, oblest faces ever painted by an artist's brush. With true dramatic power the master has surrounded that young girl with all the horrors of a Neronian persecution. There in the background of the picture is the amphitheatre in which wild beasts are tearing the martyrs to pieces and crunching the bones of the slain. There are the torches made out of the living bodies of men and women, covered with pitch, who are dying for their belief in the lowly Nazarene. There are the grim faced Roman soldiers. There is the pleading lover, as well as powers.
