

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

Maritime—Moderate westerly winds, a few light scattered showers but mostly fine and warm.

Toronto, July 5.—Scattered showers have occurred today in the St. Lawrence valley, the Maritime provinces, Alberta and Saskatchewan and locally in northern Ontario, but the weather generally has been fine.

Washington Forecast. Washington, D. C., July 5.—Forecast for New England: Increasing cloudiness Tuesday; showers Tuesday night and Wednesday, winds shifting to moderate east.

Off On Fishing Trip. Aid. R. T. Hayes, Mr. E. L. Rising, Mr. J. N. Harvey and Rev. H. D. Marr leave together today for Canaan. They will fish the streams of that district for a few days.

Was struck by Baseball. A lad named Gill was struck by a baseball while engaged in a game on the Shamrock grounds yesterday and had some of his teeth broken, and most of the rest loosened. Dr. J. P. McInerney attended him.

G. T. P. Bridge Inspector. Bridge Inspector Unlacek, of the National Transcontinental Railway was at the Royal yesterday. He has been inspecting the bridge at Chipman and will proceed to Plaster Rock to look over the bridge work there.

Hon. D. V. Landry in City. Hon. D. V. Landry, M. P. P., of Richibucto, Commissioner of Agriculture, arrived in the city last evening. He leaves this morning for Fredericton to attend the meeting of the Provincial Government to be held there this evening.

Lodges Coming Up For the 12th. Coronation and Mount Purple Loyal Orange Lodges will celebrate the 12th July with the Order in St. John and will arrive in the city about 11 o'clock using a number of large salmon motor boats. They will also be accompanied by their families.

Will Go To Hospital. James Taylor, who has been in jail since last Tuesday for drunkenness, was examined yesterday morning by Dr. James Christie who advised his removal to the hospital immediately as he is seriously ill. He was conveyed to that institution later on in the day.

To The Seattle Fair. A party of four ladies, three from St. John and one from Yarmouth, left left by last evening's Montreal train upon the interesting trip to the Seattle fair. Those in the party were Mrs. John Cummings, of Yarmouth; Mrs. Andrew Stewart, Mrs. William Quinslow and Miss Quinslow, of St. John.

Will Elect Officers Today. At a meeting of the Presbytery which will be held at 10 o'clock this morning in the St. Andrew's Church, the officers for the ensuing year will be elected. The assistant and successor to Rev. Dr. Currie, late professor in Pine Hill College, will be nominated at this meeting. Much other important business will also come up at the meeting.

Additions at C. P. R. Fairville Station. An addition to the C. P. R. station, Fairville, is being made in the shape of a second waiting room, which is being built on at the eastern end, up-to-date. One room has been made to serve for both men and women. This method has had its disadvantage, and that of separate accommodations is a distinct improvement.

An Automobile Party. An automobile party composed of Mr. W. H. Brown and Mrs. Brown, of Boston; Mr. L. Martin, of Boston, and Mr. George L. Lyon, of New York, motored from Boston last week, and after stopping at the Dufferin for the week end left yesterday for Eastport whence they will take the steamer for home.

Meeting of Waterways Commission Tomorrow. The next meeting of the waterways commission will be held in the city tomorrow when further evidence will be adduced. The place of meeting has not yet been decided upon, but in a probability it will be held in the admiralty court room. Several witnesses will likely be examined.

Officers Were Installed. At a meeting of the bricklayers' and masons' union held on Monday evening, the following officers were installed: President—W. Sanderson. Vice-President—Hazen Taylor. Rec. Secretary—W. Spruell. Fin. Secretary—Geo. P. Hennessey. Cor. Secretary—Phillip McCartney. Treasurer—W. Allingham. S. at Arms—W. Davis.

Will Speak in St. Stephen. Rev. G. A. Kubring left by last evening's Montreal train for St. Stephen where he will address the meetings of the Sunday school convention which is to be held there today and tomorrow. Rev. Mr. Kubring is synod chairman of Sunday school work. He will speak on Bible Study and Bible Classes.

Rev. E. B. Hooper, of St. Paul's church and Rev. Mr. Conners, of the Mission church of St. John the Baptist are also among the speakers.

William J. Moss. William J. Moss, of Cole's Island, Queens county, died Friday, July 2nd, aged 37 years. He survived by his wife, father and mother, three sisters and two brothers. His sisters are Mrs. Charles Orchard, of Mill Cove, Queens county, and Mrs. George Lewis and Mrs. George W. Sloum, both residents of this city. The brothers surviving him are, George E. of Waterborough, Queens county, and Harry W. of Cole's Island, Queens county. The funeral was held on Sunday, July 4, at the Methodist church, Cole's Island. There were numerous floral offerings.

On Their Honeymoon. Mr. David E. Theall and bride, of Boston, are spending their honeymoon at Fredericton. Mr. Theall is an old St. John boy, who left here some years ago and is now the head buyer for the well known firm of R. H. White and Co. His bride was formerly Miss Eva Lockhart, daughter of Mr. Wm. Lockhart, of Fredericton. The marriage took place at the Brunswick Hotel in Boston, a few days ago. Before returning to their home in Boston they will visit some of the bachelors of Canada and take in the Thousand Isles.

STRUCK BY HANDLE OF WINCH JOHN H. SNIDER WAS INSTANTLY KILLED ON WEST SIDE YESTERDAY

In a sad accident which occurred on the West Side yesterday afternoon, Mr. John H. Snider, of 209 King street, West End, was killed almost instantaneously.

Preparations were being made for the sinking of the crib at the new South Rodway wharf yesterday afternoon. About 3.15 p'clock, Messrs John Snider and Fred Bedford were standing on the floating crib, and each held a handle of a winch, from which a heavy rope was stretched to the wharf, while another rope from the opposite wharf was fastened to the winch. This was being operated at the other end of the crib. The position of the new crib was being regulated, and both ropes were as tight as possible, when the handle which Bedford was holding slipped off and left a heavy strain on the other handle which Snider was holding.

The strain was so great with the other rope being pulled fast that Snider was forced to let go of the handle, a heavy iron one. With terrific force it swung around and struck him on the head, dashing him to the ground. The sound of the blow was distinctly heard at a distance of about a hundred feet. The man fell flat on his back on a plank and never stirred nor uttered a syllable afterwards, as he was immediately rendered unconscious.

Head Was Smashed. His skull was not only fractured, but the cranium was completely smashed, and his brains were scattered over the plank, making the scene a most horrible one.

The ambulance was at once telephoned for and Dr. Ellis was summoned. The ambulance, however, returned on the first trip after its arrival, as the unfortunate man had already passed away.

Mr. Snider was placed in a gasolene boat, and hurried to the wharf, but as soon as he reached the Government boathouse, Dr. Ellis, who in the meantime had arrived on the scene, pronounced the man dead. He had just breathed his last as he reached the boathouse, which was only a few minutes after the fatality occurred. The body was kept there until the coroner, Dr. Kenny, arrived and viewed it after which it was taken to Mr. Beatty's undertaking rooms.

Borrowful News For His Wife. Among those who were working near Snider was his cousin, who bore the sorrowful news to the unfortunate man's wife.

The blow was a great shock to his fellow workmen, who were dumbfounded and excited at the sudden and very much unexpected occurrence.

Care Exercised, It is Said. It is said that every precaution was taken in order to prevent such accidents, and the foreman, Mr. Lord, who received the shock with heartfelt sorrow, had frequently made inquiries as to the safety of the lives of the workmen, and had never allowed them to work where their lives would be in jeopardy.

The deceased is about thirty-five years of age and is survived by a wife, who was formerly Miss Gilbrath, and one child. His parents reside at Mace's Bay, also survive him. He was very popular with the workmen, and had succeeded in winning the respect of his many acquaintances. He was a member of No. 2 Battery Royal Artillery, and was a member of which will turn out in plain clothes for the funeral. For many years he has worked as a longshoreman during the winter months.

The remains will be taken to Mace's Bay for interment. Coroner Kenny stated last evening that an inquest would be held, and a preliminary examination will be conducted this morning.

CLEVER AND DARING DAYLIGHT THIEF STEALS CASH FROM STORE

Apparently a pretty smooth thief, has been operating of late in Indian town. Most persons would say that it required some cleverness to enter a store in daylight and with people working about, to reach the owner's desk, twenty feet from the door, abstract $30 and make a clean getaway.

This was accomplished at Mr. W. H. Dunham's grocery store, Main St., on Friday last. Since the day the theft the police have been working upon the case but without result.

The money stolen was a mixture of bills and silver contained in a leather bag. It had been left by Mr. Dunham in an elevated desk six feet in length located at the rear of the store. It was in the desk at seven o'clock in the evening, but when the proprietor returned at eight, it was listed among the missing.

Two clerks were at work in the store during the hour. Mr. Dunham said last evening that he had satisfied himself conclusively as to the innocence of all his employees.

SUNDAY TRAIN A NECESSITY HE DECLARES

That the opposition to Sunday trains was based largely upon ignorance and could not be rationally supported was the opinion expressed last evening by Mr. W. B. Tennant. Mr. Tennant's opinion will carry weight because of the fact that he is a churchworker of some prominence.

"I have been delayed in Boston or Montreal," said Mr. Tennant, "for the lack of a train which would permit me to leave those places on Saturday after my business had been completed, and have had to put in nearly two days which I could much better have spent at home."

"One of my strongest reasons for wishing to get to St. John for Sunday is based upon the fact that I teach a Sunday school Bible class which I very much regret being absent from. In my opinion Sunday trains are bound to come. Public sentiment demands them."

KRIST JOHNSON STILL IN THE COUNTY JAIL

Krist Johnson, the Norwegian, who became violently insane in the county jail on Sunday evening, and made a desperate attempt to kill a fellow prisoner, Dennis Sullivan, is still in his cell, handcuffed, and in the same mental condition. The officials feel that being a non-resident of the Province the law will not permit of his admittance to the Provincial Hospital for Nervous Diseases. The authorities are looking up the law on the matter and if possible the man will be taken to the asylum. If it is found impossible to have him admitted he will be deported to his native country to be cared for.

It is understood that he recently walked the whole distance from Chipman to St. John, and was acting very strangely all along the line. His condition has not improved in the least since Sunday night. Dr. James Christie will have charge of him while he remains in the jail.

NO LICENSE; ARE REPORTED BY POLICE

Detective Killen has reported the following persons for doing a junk business in the city without a license: Nathan Holsman, Munroe's Alley; John Abatani, 53 Chapel street; Myar Perchont, 53 Chapel street; Herman Cohen, 53 Chapel street; Isaac Levin, 53 Chapel street; William troskey, Mill street; Jacob Dreata, 695 Main street; Jacob Nosentoff, Chapel St.; Nathan Melthen, Chapel street; Myer Burdick, 9 Ann street; David Balg, 21 Paradise Row; Samuel Weitzer, 34 Chapel street; Michael Urtale, North street; Henry Meckleson, 126 Pond street.

Mangled By A Dog. Officer J. E. Gouline was called to Leithair street last evening to destroy a cat which had been mangled by a dog.

Furious Driving. Morris Furlong has been reported by the police for furiously driving a horse attached to an express wagon round the corner of Mill and Pond streets yesterday.

Died at Lower Jemseg. The death of Mrs. Jane Roach Fenwick, widow of the late Edwin F. Fenwick, Millstream, Kings county, took place on Monday, July 5, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lower Jemseg. The deceased was the eldest daughter of the late Hon. J. H. Regan. The funeral will be held at Millstream on Wednesday afternoon.

MANY OFF TO STE. ANNE DE BEAUPRE

The excursion to the shrine at St. Anne de Beaupre, which is being conducted by Rev. Father Savage, of Moncton, will commence today. The excursionists from Moncton will arrive in the city this morning, and together with those going from St. John, they will leave on the Boston train this morning. Over a hundred persons from Moncton will visit the shrine, but there will be not nearly as many as this going from the city. The total number of excursionists will be larger this year than any previous year, and the excursion is expected to be a great success.

Pleasant Birthday Party. Mrs. J. C. McKinnon, of Main street, Fairville, was visited last evening by a party of her friends who had organized an impromptu birthday party. The hostess received a shower of very useful remembrances.
