LOVELY RAGER OF STOCK ACTIVE BUSINESS WOMAN

Miss Kelley Surprises all with Announcement of Position.

AN ENTERPRISING
THEATRE MANAGER

Will Look After Interests of Thompson - Woods Stock Company During Season at Opera House—
A Demure Young Person.

Everything must have a beginning.
All sorts of business enterprises require a proper start to launch them successfully.

Imagine the general surprise one day last week, when a demure young lady was ushered into the editorial room on a matter of "business." Instantly the supposition was that she was applying for a position as stenographer, or possibly there to give the details of some society function. Then came the surprise. The young lady calmly announced that she was the advance press representative of the Thompson-Woods Stock Company. As a usual thing, the comic papers in common with the accepted idea of newspaper women, caricature them and describe them as the manly type. She is being represented as "old maids." Sometimes she is accompanied by a sour disposition. The young lady, however, was of a far different type. She is a native of Cincinnati, Ohio, and really the press agent of the Thompson-Woods Stock Company.

She was attractive and not at all of the manly type. Young? yes, and very bright. It was only a matter of a few moments' conversation to see that Miss Kelley was well versed in newspaper lore and understood the fine points of advertising, which has been demonstrated during the short time of her sojourn in the city, and during a short interview the other day the reporter managed to draw these facts from this self-possessed little miss, educated and a graduate of Normal College in Cincinnati. Also a graduate from a prominent business college there.

One of her first positions was as a stenographer to a theatrical manager in that city. Later gaining an insight to the business she applied and was appointed press representative and treasurer of the Olympic Theatre in Cincinnati. Then she described the big event of her life, a trip from ocean to ocean as press agent for Denman Thompson's celebrated play, "The Old Homestead." "This," as Miss Kelley describes it, "gave me a great insight to human nature, and did more to make me appreciate what big hearted men there were publishing newspapers throughout the United States. I was received kindly everywhere, and instead of men looking down upon me because I was one of the few women engaged in this line of work, or because I was usurping some man's place, they seemed to like the novelty of a lady calling upon them and aided me in every way possible.

"This tour really gave me a recognized position in this line of work, which I have followed regularly since that time, but naturally prefer to be permanently located and avoid the hardships of travel. I have never had one unkind word from my co-workers in this field, and let me add, never a suggestion of anything at which I could become offended from those whom my business has brought me in contact with. In a few sentences, when out late at night making the rounds of the newspaper offices after a performance at the theatre, things have happened at which I might have taken offence, but I really believe that a girl or a woman, if she will only mind her own business, even the wisdom of my busy, can go abroad at any hour of the day or night without fear of being accosted except, possibly, by some stray man who is under the influence of liquor."

Miss Kelley comes here in a financial capacity, and as before mentioned, as the press representative of the Thompson-Woods Stock Company, opening at the St. John Opera House, October 6th. When asked if she believed in votes for women, she replied, "Not being a tax payer yet, I am not particularly interested, but I do believe that a woman should have the right to fill any position in this world which she may be capable of doing as successfully as a man. In such instances sex should not count, and as regarding a vote, I have scarcely reached the voting age, and have been too busy earning my living to really give the matter serious consideration." This was as near as we could get to Miss Kelley's real age.

She thanked us sweetly and disappeared, saying that she must hurry off to the other newspaper offices and see about her copy, but our private opinion is incidentally to make an impression upon the male members of some other editorial staff.

NORMAL SCHOOL TEAM WINS.

Fredericton, Oct. 3.—The Provincial Normal School team defeated the High School team here this afternoon by a score of 13-6. The first try was made for the High School by Bridges.
Carter scored the second try for the High School boys. At the end of the first half the score was 6-6. In the second half the Normalites outclassed their opponents. Capt. Harold Drum-

WATERLOO IS REALISTIC ON MOVIE SCREEN

Wonderful War Picture Taken on Scene of Famous Battle.

VERY COMPLETE IN
ALL PARTICULARS

Shows Festive Ball Given by Duchess of Richmond and Terrible Scenes in Great Battle.

One of the most wonderfully realistic war pictures ever placed upon the market is the Battle of Waterloo, a five-reel production which is being handled on the state-right plan by the Waterloo Film Co. of New York.

The film, which was taken upon the actual scene of the battle, is of England make and depicts, from the call to arms given when safety was at its height at the famous hall of the Duchess of Richmond, to the exile of the Man of Destiny, the various events which led up to and took place in the terrible struggle which marked the downfall of the greatest military genius the world has ever seen, and completely changed the map of the whole of Europe, if not of the entire world.

Opening with the festive scene at the ball, this cinematograph masterpiece carries the spectator through the changes that marked the course of events in the following order of action:

Napoleon having defeated the Prussian corps of General Zieten at Thur-in advances to Charleroi to secure a position between Blucher and Wellington.

Scenes at the Chamcook Sardine Canning Factory

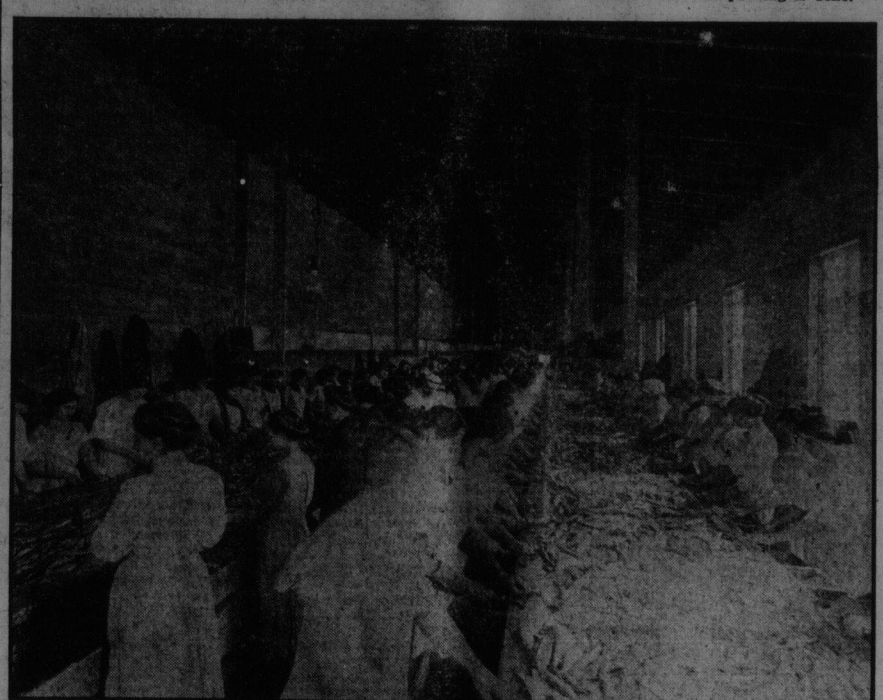

VIEW OF BUSY PACKING DEPARTMENT.

The two photographs which appear on this page represent scenes in the Canadian Sardine Company's factory at Chamcook. This plant was built a year or so ago and has been regarded as a model of its kind. Unfortunately during the past few months the management have found it impossible to obtain a sufficient supply of herrings to operate the factory to anything like its capacity, and for this reason have not been able to carry on the work successfully from the financial point of view.

As a result of the conditions brought about in this way the factory was closed a few weeks ago, but arrangements have since been made to operate under different conditions and on a smaller scale. It is anticipated that before very long everything will be running even more satisfactorily than formerly, and that the goods turned out will continue to find a ready market. These photographs show a clean, bright room where the fish are prepared, and also the department in which the final touch is given to the cans, and where the packing is done.

THE MAYOR'S INVITATION.

New York, Oct. 3.—Mayor Kline today wrote to Mayor Rudolph Blaken-burg, of Philadelphia, as follows:
"My Dear Mayor:
"On Tuesday next, October 7, the Giants are going to wipe up the Polo grounds with the so-called Athletics of your city. It will give me great pleasure to have you present on that occasion as my guest. Please let me know as early as possible if you can come, and if so, where I can meet you not later than one o'clock, to go to the ball ground.

"With high regard,
"Very truly yours,
(Signed) "A. L. KLINE, Mayor."

RUSH FOR BASEBALL SEATS HAS BEGUN

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 3.—Philadelphia "fans" who are anxious to obtain tickets for the approaching world's series baseball games, are engaging boys to stand in line all night before the public sale for the contests to be staged in this city. Companies which furnish messenger boys are making preparations to meet the unusual demand, and one company announced that the rate would be raised from twenty to thirty cents an hour for the service.

Although the baseball officials are endeavoring to keep the tickets out of the hands of speculators, it was reported today that one prospective dealer in the coveted pasteboards had engaged twenty boys to stand in line from nine o'clock Sunday night until nine o'clock Monday morning, when the sale opens.

Under the rules adopted this year, no mail orders will be honored and each purchaser must buy tickets for three games in this city and no one will be permitted to buy more than two for each game. In case three games are not played here money for tickets not used will be returned to the purchasers.

The requirement that even those who desire to witness only one game must buy tickets for three is causing some unfavorable comment among the local baseball followers.

MILE IN 2-12 3/4.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 3.—The world's record for a two-year-old trotting gelding was lowered this afternoon at a breeders' meeting, when Judge Jones, driven by H. M. Childs, trotted a mile in 2:12 3/4. The last quarter was done in 31 3/4 seconds.

GHASTLY DEED CHARGED AGAINST MONTANA MAN

PLAN A FAST STEAMER LINE ACROSS OCEAN

Promoters are Now in Ottawa Seeking Provincial Assistance.

TWO NIGHTS AT SEA
IS PART OF SCHEME

Involves Big Expenditures at Galway, Ireland and at Point St. Charles, Quebec —Railway Charters.

Special to The Standard.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—The establishment of a new fast line of steamers connecting Canada and Europe and operating between Cape St. Charles on the eastern coast of Quebec, and Galway in Ireland, is involved in the scheme of the All-Red Steamship Company for which promoters are now in Ottawa seeking financial assistance.

It is intimated that a bond guarantee of between ten and fifteen million dollars is sought. A company was incorporated in 1911 under the name of the All-Red Line and meanwhile its organization has been perfected up to the point of arranging for new steamers of 25 knot capacity. A provisional contract with Swan & Hunter has been entered into for the construction of the boat. The land end of the project involves the building of a railway from Quebec or Lake St.
John easterly to Sape St. Charles and a charter is already in existence.

It is urged in support of the proposal that the distance between the two ports is but sixteen hundred miles and that it can be covered with but two nights at sea. It is understood also that MacKenzie and Mann who own railway charters in Eastern Quebec have been approached in connection with the scheme if not being actually interested in it. The matter is being laid before the government by the promoters but has not been dealt with officially as yet.

DO JURYMEN NOW RECEIVE ENOUGH PAY?

Question Raised in Letter by Business Man who Served for 75 Hours for $7.00 — Wants More.

To the Editor:

Dear Sir:—Re jury fees. I wish to call attention to the miserable fees which jury men receive, more especially to men who are called upon to try criminal cases. There is at present no discrimination made between the man who reports at 10 o'clock and is excused, or is not wanted for the rest of the day, and the man who spends the whole day; each receives the large sum of $1.00 or $2.00 for 24 hours. The jury panel is usually composed mostly of business men, whose time is valuable, who in order to successfully conduct their business are obliged to be "on the job" every day.
The writer on Friday, the 26th ult., arrived at his office at 9 o'clock to find a constable waiting with a summons to appear at court at 10 o'clock and was accepted as a juror for the Field case, and was in the custody of the court until Monday, the 29th ult., at 1 o'clock, an unbroken stretch of 75 hours, for which the handsome sum of $7.00 will be paid.

The judge receives $6,000 or $7,000 per year and the attorneys are also well paid. The jury is all important, as in their hands depend the fate of the prisoner, therefore their service must be valuable and the man who is taken from his home and business should in justice receive $5.00 per day. The Attorney General is a fair and just man and now that this matter has been brought to his attention as it will receive the attention the case merits.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your kind indulgence, Yours very truly,
"ONE OF THE TWELVE."

Alleged to Have Robbed Grave for Insurance
Money.

POLICE ARREST A
BIG RANCH OWNER

Arthur S. Hughes Faces Serious Charge Together with Wife, and another man—Caught by Detectives at Brooklyn Bridge

New York, Oct. 3.—Charged with conspiracy, arson and the robbery of a grave, Arthur S. Hughes, a ranch owner of Forsyth, Mont., was arrested here this afternoon at the request of Sheriff Mosen, of Rosebud County, Mont. Hughes is charged with having entered into a conspiracy with his wife and a man named Elliott, both of whom, the police assert, are under arrest in Montana, to collect from the Montana Life Insurance Company $8, 000 insurance on his life.

According to the complaint, a man named Craig was killed in Forsyth about two and one-half months ago by a railroad train. Hughes, it is alleged, took Craig's body from the grave where it lay, carted it to his home, placed it in a bed chamber and then set the house on fire. The body burned to a crisp and unrecognizable, was found in the embers, and Mrs. Hughes went into mourning for her husband.
Hughes, the complaint continues, disappeared.

A few days later Mrs. Hughes married Elliott and put in a claim for the $8,000 insurance on Hughes' life.
Sheriff Mosen believed that the body found in the ruins was that of Hughes, and soon afterward arrested them both while he investigated the supposed death of Hughes.

Arrested in New York.
Mosen and the insurance officials learned that Hughes had come to New York, and was in communication with his supposed widow. They notified the New York police, and detectives were sent out to find him. After searching for weeks they traced him to cheap lodging houses on the East Side, and found that he was working as a longshoreman. Today they arrested him at the entrance to the Brooklyn bridge.

The Montana authorities investigating the death of the supposed Hughes, according to advices received at police headquarters here, caused the body found in the ruins to be exhumed and measured. Then they discovered the robbery of Craig's grave, and by the measurements of the body learned that it was Craig's and not that of Hughes.

The police assert that Hughes admitted his identity when arrested, and also admitted having written his wife.
He said he wanted to clear his wife of any charges made against her in connection with his supposed death.
"My troubles have been all domestic," was the only statement that the police could get from him. He is being held without bail for further examination.

Royal Trust Company.

L. S. Kelly, of Toronto, until recently secretary of The Royal Trust Company for Ontario, has been appointed secretary for New Brunswick, and has come here to take charge of the company's business in the Mar-time Provinces, with the manager of the Bank of Montreal in an advisory capacity. The Royal Trust Company, which is one of the foremost trust companies in Canada, has been represented here since 1902 by the manager of the Bank of Montreal. The business of The Royal Trust Company will be carried on in the office of the Bank of Montreal, as formerly.
