

19. The Cabinet agreed that the proposed Immigration Regulations be sent to the Department of Justice to be put into proper legal form and to have included in them as many beneficial provisions relating to appeals and other procedures called for in the Bill of Rights as would be possible within the authority of the Immigration Act.

R.B. BRYCE