Imitation is the Sincere Form of Flattery.

The best proof that

Minard's Liniment

has extraordinary merits, and is in good repute with the public, is that IT IS EXTENSIVELY IMITATED. The Imitations resemble the genuine article in appearance only. They lack the general excellence of the Genuine.

This notice is necessary, as injurious and dangerous imitations, liable to produce chronic inflammation of the skin are often substituted for MINARD'S LINIMENT by Dealers, because they pay a larger profit.

PICTOU, PICTOU CO.

Dec. 17.—After looking through the items of the 'Truro News,' I fail to see any news from the "Banner Town" of Nova Scotia. I think Pictou should be represented in the columns of the 'News,' so I begin now.

Mr. Thomas Meagher has gone to Prince Edward Island on business.

Mr. William Yorston left for New York last week.

Mrs. Margaret Crocker, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. James Thompson, left last week to spend Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Laidlaw in Halifax.

Mr. Edwin McCool, of Eastville, Upper Stewiacke, spent Sunday with his sister Anna.

Miss McCool, who has spent the last five months here, will leave for her home in Eastville this week.

She has made a large number of friends who regret her departure very much. During her stay here she has learned the art of dressmaking with the Misses McLellan, of this town.

The students of Pictou Academy intend having a social on Thursday evening, before breaking up for the Xmas vacation.

Miss Mabel McDonald, who was very ill, is slowly improving.

Miss Eleanor Blackie is visiting her friend, Miss Etta Meagher.

If this does not find its way to the waste basket, I will call again.
ROSE BUD.Pleanty Left For a Sandwich.

A certain lawyer who was a candidate for a municipal office went out canvassing one day and knocked at a cottage door. The door was opened by a woman.

"Is your husband in, Mrs. —?" inquired the lawyer.

"No, sir," was the reply, "but I know what you want. My husband is sure to vote for you, because you got him off for stealing that ham last week."

"No, no; alleged stealing of the ham," corrected the lawyer.

"Alleged be blowed!" was the woman's smiling reply. "We've got a bit of it left still. Lemme give you a sandwich out of it, sir."—London Tit-Bits.

Professional Pride.

"Don't you know better than to tackle a man for a dime when he is talking to ladies?" said the citizen on the street corner, fumbling in his pocket and finding nothing less than a quarter, which he reluctantly handed out.

"Mebby you understand my business better'n I do, an' mebbly you don't," laughingly replied Tufford Knutt, pocketing the coin and moving on with his greasy old hat at a prominent angle on the side of his head.

Slater Flat-tread Shape

The tread of certain feet is flatter than others and the Slater Shoe makers have made this point a source of careful investigation—the result is the "Flat-tread" shape.

Feet of this description are shorter from heel to ball and longer from there to toes. They are as a rule powerful, but most of their power is lost in wearing wrong shaped shoes.

This shape is especially designed for such feet, they will find a degree of comfort in it not attainable in any other.

Made in all styles, leathers and shades.

Every pair Goodyear welted with name and price of makers stamped on soles in slate frame $3.50 and $5.
