Mr. William Regan received a telegram on Monday containing the sad news of the death of his daughter Hazel (Mrs. Frank Madden) at Dorchester, Mass., on Sunday of Spanish Influenza. The deceased was twenty-four years of age and was married about fifteen months ago. She leaves a sorrowing husband and infant child. Her death has been a great loss to her parents and her sorrowful ones but she sometimes had eluded without further information it was hoped that she was recovering. The Acadian readers should sympathize.

At the Baptist Church.

The annual church tea and business meeting of the Baptist church was held Wednesday evening and nearly two hundred members and friends sat down to the tables where abundance of war time food and good cheer made a very pleasant hour. The occasion was in the nature of a farewell to the pastor, Rev. N. A. Harkness, who has been accepted as chaplain and will soon leave to take up his patriotic work. At the close of the report Dr. Cattan in well chosen words expressed the esteem and appreciation in which Mr. Harkness is held and presented him on behalf of the church with a sum of money to be used, if desired, on his equipment.

The members of the church are unanimous in the thought of the services they are called upon to make for their country in giving up their pastor, Mr. Harkness, by the sacrifice and simplicity of his life, by his broad tolerant conception of life, by his unselfishness, by his uniformity in his own conduct, and by his love for people who will follow him in his new work with every good will.

NOTICE—MILITARY SERVICE ACT, 1917 MEN EXEMPTED AS FARMERS

Having in view the importance of leaving a sufficient number of men on those farms, which are actually contributing to the National Food Supply, notice is hereby given as follows:

1. ALL MEMBERS OF CLASS I POSSESSING EXEMPTION AS FARMERS which is expiring and WHICH WISH TO REMAIN EXEMPT should communicate with the Registrar under the M.S.A., of their respective districts REQUESTING AN EXTENSION IN TIME OF SUCH EXEMPTION. Questionnaires will thereupon be issued to these men by the Registrar and they will receive further exemption upon furnishing satisfactory proof that they are contributing sufficiently to the National Food Supply.

2. In order to facilitate productive employment during the winter months, MEN EXEMPTED AS FARMERS SHOULD APPLY TO THE REGISTRARS FOR PERMITS TO ENGAGE FOR THE WINTER IN SOME OCCUPATION OF NATIONAL INTEREST, SUCH AS LUMBERING, MUNITION WORK, ETC. Such permits will serve to enable exempted farmers to pursue other useful occupations for the months during which farming operations cannot be carried on.

Death of Prominent Wolfville Man.

Wolfville has sustained a severe loss in the death of a respected citizen, Mr. Avar J. Woodman, which took place after a brief illness, on Saturday morning last.

The deceased was one of the best known men in the community and will be deeply missed and very much missed. He was a native of Wolfville, a son of the late William Woodman, and had spent all his life here. He was a successful business man and a good citizen. A generous and faithful supporter of the Methodist church his place will be hard to fill. For many years he conducted the music and was always at his place.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodman returned recently from a trip to Washington where their youngest daughter was married a few weeks ago. He was not feeling well on his return but no anxiety was felt until at the first of last week when he consulted a doctor. On Friday morning he had a stroke of apoplexy and never regained consciousness, passing away on Saturday.

He is survived by a surviving widow and two daughters, Mrs. Fosbury of Wolfville, and Mrs. Ryan of Rochester, N. Y. Mr. F. W. Woodman, of this town, is a brother.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon from his late home, under the direction of Mr. Snow, of Halifax, a professional friend of the deceased. It was one of the largest funerals ever seen in Wolfville. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Watts, pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. Mr. Armitage, a former minister, Dr. DeWolfe, Dr. Chute and Rev. Dr. Borden of Kentville, took part. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. Messrs. W. C. B. Harris, T. L. Harvey, J. D. Harris, L. W. Sillip, R. H. Burgess and Brighton Fielding were the pall bearers. The Boy Scout band, of which Mr. Woodman was a warm friend, led the long procession to Willow Bank and played the "Dead March" and other selections.
