Adjutant General's Office
Quebec 19th March 1814

His Excellency The Commander of the Forces has received from Major General De Rottenb<sup>g</sup> the proceedings of a Court of enquiry held at Montreal for the investigation of irregularity and outrages committed by a Detachment of the 103rd Regiment under the Command of Captain Irwin on its March from Quebec.

The proceedings of the Court are confined to the assaults and Murder committed in the Parish of Cape Santé (as no evidence of any other outrages were brought before It) and to ascertain the Discipline, and order of March preserved by the Detachment on its Route.—

From these enquiries superficial as they have of necessity been, from the absence of the evidence of the Persons agrieved, sufficient Testimony has nevertheless been adduced by the Officers and Non Commissioned Officers of the Detachment, to establish that extreme irregularity—and want of order and discipline prevailed upon the First & Second day
