

10.—And all other monies which the Council may grant to, or appropriate for the purpose.

Separate Accounts of the Fund.

IV. The Fund and the accounts thereof, shall be kept separate from all other Funds and accounts, but the same shall be managed and audited like the other Municipal Funds.

5

Investment of Fund.

V. Any surplus of principal or interest shall, if it be expedient so to do, be invested in some safe Fund or Security bearing interest.

Amount of Allowances from Fund how fixed.

VI. In Cities the Board of Police Commissioners, subject to the approval of the Council, and in Towns the Council shall determine the amount of allowance to be made to any of the force, on any account, or for any purpose for which the Fund is established.

10

Retiring allowance at 50 years after 15 of service.

VII. After a service of fifteen years in the force, any Member thereof shall be at liberty, if over fifty years of age, to retire, and in case he has served faithfully and obtained a good character to that effect, he shall be entitled to receive a yearly sum of 15

Increased pay if he continues to serve

VIII. In case any person so entitled to a retiring yearly allowance desires to, and is capable of continuing, and is continued in the Force, he shall receive the yearly sum of beyond his regular pay.

Allowance during sickness, &c., contracted while on duty.

IX. In case any Member of the Force contracts sickness, or receives injury while on duty, and is compelled and allowed to withdraw from the Force in consequence thereof, and in case he cannot, during such time, earn a livelihood in any other capacity, and is otherwise unable to support himself or his family, he shall receive a superannuation allowance while absent from the Force and unfit for Service.

25

Objects of and charges on the Fund.

X. The Fund shall be devoted to the following purposes and objects, and the charges on the Fund shall stand and be paid in the following order,—to provide;

1. For the Medical attendance on the men.

2. For rewards for special good conduct or meritorious service.

30

3. For the superannuated allowance on retiring from the Force, or under Section IX, in case of sickness or injury.

4. For pensions or other relief to the destitute widows and children of such of the Force as have behaved well, or served long and faithfully, and

35

5. For the increased pay to such of the men, as would have been entitled to the superannuated allowance, if they had retired from the Force, but who continue to serve therein.

Allowances may be increased, or reduced, &c.

XI. The allowances of every kind may be increased or reduced at any time, according to the state of the Fund, if the Council shall think it expedient to make any such alteration; and the Council may also stop entirely any allowance under this Act, in case the necessity for continuing it no longer exists, or in case of misconduct.

40