CARNIVAL CHAIRMAN

There's word around that our talked - about carnival is mainly touch and go. And it couldn't be more true. At the council meeting last Tuesday we discussed the matter with a view to finding a chairman. Yet we don't know exactly what he'll have to do. By this Saturday, the 20th of October, we'll have talked to all the other of the saturday. The reason of $1 for the ski-tow ticket instead of the usual $2.50.

Until last week a student wishing to able and lounging chairs as well as several paintings donated by various alumnae associations. Until last week a student wishing to able thours at which the room is open hours at w as well as the purchase of new recordings. "Rules and regula-tions will be posted in the music room and will apply to all stu-dents," said Prof. Wilson.

Plans are being made to have student supervision of the music room and possibly to have a student representative on the music

BEST YEAR YET The Student's Book Exchange

BOOK EXCHANGE

this year located in the band room beneath the gym, had its third and most successful year with $3,000 worth of books being

In charge of the exchange was Dave Maxwell who commented, "The idea is catching on; business has gone up this year."

When a student brings a book to the exchange he quotes the price for which he wishes it to be sold. If the book is sold, the bookstore receives 10 per cent of the selling price as commission. This amount is divided between This amount is divided between bookstore officials and Students'

Usually each book is sold for 60-80 per cent of its cost when new. This year 280 people brought in $3,000 worth of second hand books. This amount is double the business done in the preceding Despite aggressive competition, however, the student exchange cannot match Atwood's Bookstore. Mr. Maxwell commented on At-wood's prices. "They are outrag-eous; higher than comparable booksellers. Their profits must be enormous.

Mr. Maxwell and Dave George, Campus co-ordinator and an organizer of the first student ex-change, think that a "bigger and better location" will be necessary next year, and they also suggest-
