

of the House.

This calls for action
on your part for your own protection and reputation sake, as well as making them pay your own
costs of defence.

Perhaps I should
not disclose this matter to you as it was given
me privately, but you
have been a real good friend of mine and I
like to see stability
in the back of this