

- 442; takes and fortifies Point Levi, 443; ruse to revive the spirits of his men, 446; preparations against De Levis' attack, 447; journal, 450; imprudent hazard of battle, 451; narrative of battle of Ste Foye, 451-454; manifesto, 454; alien dependent spirit of his troops, 455; re-assurance, 456; message to the fleet, 456; expedition up St Lawrence, 459; expedition against Montreal, 463; military rule of Canada, 476.
- NATIONS, Five. See the Iroquois; Six, 261. Newfoundland, early cod fisheries, xix; Cartier's comparative estimate of, 3; M. de Roberval, first French viceroy of, 18.
- New France. See Canada. Colonisation of, 35. See Nova Scotia. Newspaper, first, Canadian, 231.
- Nova Scotia. De Mont's preference for, 34; cession to England by France, 261; English expedition against the French in, 301-304; resistance on the part of the French to English rule on religious grounds, 301, 302; dilemma of the English in regard to, 302; expulsion and hardships of French colonists, 303, 304; resulting desolation, 304; character of French settlers in, 302, 304.
- Nuns, Ursuline, establishment of, 101; contentedness, 102.
- OATH of neutrality, 463.
- Onondagas. See Iroquois.
- Orders, religious, laws to limit the acquisition of property by, 253.
- Oswego, Fort, fall of, 318; its effect on French influence with natives, 320.
- Ottawa, discovery of, 45; traversed as far as 46° 20' north latitude, 48.
- PELRIE, Mad. dela, arrival of, 106; devotion, 106, 107, 176; connections and personal attractions, 176; influence upon colonial manners, 177.
- Perrot, Nicolas, character and antecedents, 228; knowledge of and influence with the Indians, 228, 229; services to the colony, 229; good offices of, 246, 250.
- Perrots, the, notice of, 184.
- Pestilence, ravages of, 147, 148.
- Phipps, Sir W. squadron, 214, 216; summons, 216; flag, 217; attacks on Quebec, 217, 218; discomfiture, 219; death, 219.
- Pitt, William, anti-French policy, 312; vigorous measures, 332.
- Plantations. See Colonies.
- Portuguese, discoveries of, xvii.; effects of their example on maritime enterprise, xviii.
- QUEBEC, origin of, 9-16; French trading-station at, 27; rude beginnings, 36; population in 1616, 56; early troubles, 56, 57, 59; projected fortification, 59; made capital of Canada, 59; famine in 1623, 71; blockade of, and demand to surrender by the English, 72; surrender, 74; foundation of college at, 83; registers first kept in, 101; first baptism in, 101; first wedding in, 101; jealousy of Montreal, 111; births in 1670, 1671, 189; growth into a city, 180; great fire in, 191; preparations at, against the English, 216-218; summons of to surrender, 218; successful resistance of, 218, 219; state of during siege, 220; additions to the defences of, 227, 269; population in 1722, 271; society of in 1720, 273, 274; scarcity in, 313; armament against, under Saunders and Wolfe, 363-365; operations for defence, 366-369; distribution of forces, 370; arrival of the English, 371; futile attempt to fire the English fleet and disturb the siege operations, 377, 379; effect of the bombardment on buildings, 379; virtual destruction, 379; alleged unjustifiable outrages and devastation in the fields round by the English, 386-390; Saunders and Wolfe's opinion of the defences, 391; desperate condition, 394, 397; prosecution of the siege, 416; surrender, 420; terms of capitulation, 420; occupation by the English, 421; hardships from want of fuel after fall, 430; sufferings of English garrison, 432; grotesque appearance of garrison on parade, 433; sufferings of English garrison, 445; abortive attempt of the French to retake, 456-458; joy of the English garrison on the appearance of relief, 457; siege raised, 458, 459.
- RACE ANTI-PATHIES, strength of, 25.
- Rangers, Wolfe's, bush-fighting and scalp-ing practice, 373.
- Rapids, the, discovery, 32; original name, 32; Champlain visits and passes, 44; General Amherst's expedition and the, 469; disasters to Amherst's army in, 470.
- Registers of births, &c., institution of, 171.
- Relations des Jesuites, 81; value of, 82; dates, 82; authors, 82; history as documents, 82; effect of the publication, 92, 93; references, 118, 120, 126, 128, 129, 133, 143, 167.
- Repentigny, Madame, patriotic inventions, 265.
- Residences, establishment of, 92; sites of, 92.
- Richelieu, founds a new colonial company, 75; favours the Jesuits, 77.
- Roberval, M. de, appointment as first French colonial Governor of Canada, 15; failure to found a colony, 22; loss at sea in a second attempt, 23.
- Roche, Marquis de la, failure to found a French colony in Canada, 26.
- Rocky Mountains, 276.
- Ryswick, Treaty of, 241.