MAKER AND INDORSER.

The effect of the 12 Victoria, chapter 70, commonly called "The Evidence Act," was not to repeal the 5 William IV., chapter 1: where, therefore, the maker and indorser of a promissory note were sued together in one action, and each pleaded a plea setting up want of consideration for making and indorsing the note respectively:

Held, that this did not preclude the one defendant calling and examining his co-defendant to prove the truth of such plea in favour of the party so calling him.

MORTGAGE.

1. Where a party held a mortgage upon lands, and the mortgagor having afterwards become indebted to the mortgagee in a further sum of money, conveyed the lands to him in fee, and some days afterwards the grantee gave the mortgagor a bond to re-convey upon payment of the whole debt:
