

The closing words of my prayer were :—

“To Thee, Almighty and Gracious God, we give all the praise. The praise for putting it into Hardy’s heart to adopt me, the praise for the many valuable scripture lessons I received, and the motherly admonitions of the people here. Praise for the failures endured, and the lessons learned thereby. Praise for the success I have had out West, and for the money Thou hast entrusted me with. May Thy grace now help us to use it aright and to glorify Thy name for ever.”

AMEN.
