ERIEAU

Master James Boyd has been appointed as agent of This Planet at Ericau. Subscribers of diffs paper who fail to receive it regularly at their cottages will please report the matter to him and he will receive gird forward any orders from those who desire The Planet sent to their cottages. Special summer rates to the cottagers.

Mrs. Moore, Ericau grocery, is chatham visitor to-day.

Mrs. Allister McKay, of Chatham, the guest of Mrs. W. R. Phillimore. Mrs. W. D. Samson, Blenheim, and Mrs Jean Blewett, Toronto, were in the city to-day.

Miss Mildred McLean, of Detroit, is spending a few days with hier aunt, Mrs. Fritz Falls.

Miss Sara Robertson and Duncan Robertson, of Toronto, are spending the day in Chatham.

Mrs. Geo. B. Merritt, Mrs. A. C. Blackburn and Mrs. Stanley Horning are spending the day in Blenheim. Miss Minnie Samson, of Chatham, arrived at Drumtochty yesterday, where she will spend the summer vacation.

Henry Dagneau began his holiday at Ericau last night by going for a fish. When he returned he did not have "a whole boat load of fish." Miss Bessie McKeough, of Clear-view, went in on the morning train to bid good-bye to her father, Dr. Geo. McKeough, who leaves to-day on a trip abroad.

Norman Hamper had the Banshee out last night but returned to moorings on account of light wind. You should have been out during the day-time, Capt. Harper.

An excursion train of seven coaches, en route for Port Stanley, passed the Eau train at Blenheim junction this morning. It wa sour colored friends on their yearly outling.

The cottagers are now beginning to talk of yacht racing and a regatta. The various white-winged flyers are now in commission and there are said to be some keen rivalries.

Judge Houston's swimming class of young ladies are reported to be making fine progress and the genial Police Magastrate is being deluged with new applications. The clothesline method has already been abandoned for nearly all the garls.

According to A. fr. Falls, Rev. Mr. Tolmie is the most expert angler at the Eau. "Whenever we have been out together," declares Fritz, "he has always landed six bass to my one." And that should prove the accountant's contention, he thinks.

Rev. J. C. Tolmie and Fritz Falls, of Centreville, were seen on the Eau last night making strenuous efforts to row ashore. The two gentlemen were nearly exhausted. They had been fishing all evening and the result was "a whole boat load of fish." The tabor of pulling in the fish and then conveying the fish home was such a tax on the strength of the two gentlement that restoratives had to be administered. "A whole boat load of fish!" Surely our fishy-friends, Goudreau and Heyward, will have to return to the "tall timbers."

Mr. and Mrs. Bounsall, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sheldon, of Blenheim; Mr. and Mrs. Barnet, of Cleveland; Misses Turner and Arnold, of Toronto. Rev. J. C. Tolmie and Samuel Glenn left this morning for Eric Beach, where they will be the guests of ex-Ald. Fred. Stone for a couple of days.

Miss Nellie Young, of Rat Portage, Man, who is the guest of her namesake and cousia, Miss Nellie Young, at Sandy Knowe, left this morning on a short visit to friends in the Maple City.

Following a magnificent sunset last evening a delightful calm fell upon the Eau and its waters were soon dotted with the tiny craft of canoesists and soullers. One exciting rowing race between two young ladies was pulled off by starlight and is said to have been most exciting.
