

THE LITERARY TRANSCRIPT.

A warrant has been issued for the payment of the reward of £500, offered last winter for the apprehension of W. H. Scott, in favor of the gentlemen of the Queen's Light Dragoons who made him prisoner.

Mr. Badgley, the Agent of the Constitutional Association of Montreal, was a passenger in the packet-ship Quebec, arrived at New York on Tuesday last.

We have the pleasure of announcing that Messrs. Carey Lea & Blanchard have in press a new novel by Mr. Kennedy, author of Scallion Bun and Three-shoe Robinson. It is entitled "Rosa of the Bowl, a tale of St. Inignes." The scene, we understand, is laid in Maryland. It will be found good, we venture to say.

One of the Siamese twins, Mr. Chang, has been arrested for an assault and battery in Boston. His associate brother, Mr. Eng, refuses to be arrested with him, and threatens a suit for false imprisonment. This is a puzzling case for the lawyers.—N. Y. Evening Star.

We perceive that the vacant space opposite the Custom House, Lower Town, is in course of a long wanted amelioration. The intention is to erect a low wall or embankment, six or seven feet high, by means of which Champlain Street, opposite the Queen's Store, will be widened; the space below this wall will form a most commodious callede stand, for which purpose, we understand, it is to be devoted.—Mercury.
