How to Please One's Readers

This is the pleasing problem continually confronting the makers of journals. The newspaper manager or editor who says: "This paper is as good as it is possible to be," will never please his readers.
To say that the journal can yet be improved is the way to win the further esteem of old readers and the patronage of new. That is one more reason for the success of the Monetary Times.

A JOURNAL OF CANADA IN THE 20TH CENTURY

Every mail brings in new readers. The Monetary Times is constantly improving. Its efforts are to serve the interests of its large reading public. If it does not please you personally, drop a line and tell us why.

A Healthy Sign

in the life of any publication is First: the condition of its subscription list; Second: its class of advertisers. The Commercial has never enjoyed a more prosperous period than the present—particularly in the matter of new subscribers. The reason is not far to seek.

This journal's paid circulation is larger than that of any weekly trade newspaper in Canada, and in the middle and Western Canada its circulation is larger than the combined circulation of all other trade newspapers.

Advertisers in the Commercial get
