The Salesman

covering good territory, with the right goods to sell, and at the right price, has only himself to blame if he fails.

These advantages are enjoyed by every Agent of The Great-West Life. The field is unlimited—the "goods" and the price are so decidedly "right" that the Company has for three successive years written the largest Canadian Business of any Company.

Admirable opportunities offer for men of character and ability at the present time in the organization of.
