Order and Procedure.

Agriculture and Immigration.—Mr. Bernier suggests a Joint Committee with H. of Commons. Mr. Angers promises to inquire into matter and report, 113.

Bills, amts. incorrectly recorded.—Mr. McCallum m. 3rd R. of Deschenes Bridge Co.'s Incorp. B. Mr. Power drew attention to the fact that one of the amts. made in Com. had been incorrectly reported in minutes, 248; Mr. McCallum saw no reason why 3rd R. should be postponed, 248; Mr. Power did not wish to postpone it, 248; Mr. Angers thought there could be no objection to 3rd R. of B.; Mr. Scott said no other m. could be made; the B. was passed, 250.

Bill, amts., concurred in.—E. plained that the amt. may be a very slight change, apparently merely verbal, but when phraseology of a B. sent from other House is changed, it requires the concurrence of that House, 431.

Bill, amt. not germane to, etc.—Mr. Ogilvie m. amt. to Seditious and unlawful associations and oaths B. Mr. Power did not think it in order to m. such an amt. in Com. of the W., being not germane to the B. Mr. Vidal thought amt. out of order. Mr. Clemow, amt. not out of order, can be m. at 3rd R. B. reported from Com. without amt., 330.

Bill, discussing principle in Com.—Sir Mackenzie Bowell remarked that according to authorities the discussion must be confined to the clause before the Com. for consideration, 717.

Bills, private, 3rd R.—Same day that B. is reported from Com., objected to, as in direct violation of Rule 70 (Red Mountain Ry. Co.'s B.); and 3rd R. postponed, 270-1.

Bills, private, 3rd R.—Same day that amts. to B. are adopted, objected to, Mr. Kaulbach, 280; rule only applies to same day report is presented. B. read the third time, 280.

Bills, public, interfering with private legislation.—Mr. Power took exception to the 4th cl. in Winnipeg Great Northern Ry. Co.'s B., 794-5. The Speaker ruled that public measures should not interfere with private legislation, where private interests are at stake, and that cl. should be struck out of B., 796.

Bill, withdrawal.—Mr. Clemow explained reason of withdrawal of B. and said it was the fault of the system, 768.
