GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY
 Kept her locks youthful, dark, glossy and thick with common garden Sage and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and trouble some. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disagreeable, is a sign of old age and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger. Agent T. George Bowles.

HON. S. H. BLAKE DEAD
 Eminent Counsel and Anglican Layman Passes.

Lawyer, Churchman and Educationist was Seventy-Nine Years Old and Had Been Ailing For Some Time—Known From Sea to Sea For Sterling Qualities and Vigor of Opinions.

TORONTO, June 24. — The Hon. Samuel Hume Blake, K.C., distinguished lawyer, churchman and educationist, passed away early yesterday at his residence, 46 Maple avenue. Deceased was 79 years old and had been in poor health for the past few months. Yesterday he took a turn for the worse, and owing to his advanced age, his physicians held out little hope for his recovery. His family were, therefore, notified and remained at the bedside until the end. The late Mr. Blake was a brother of the late Hon. Edward Blake, M.P., and was senior member of the legal firm of Blake, Lash, Anglin & Cassels.

The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon, following service at St. Paul's Church at 3:30 o'clock. The interment will be private, and the family have made a request that no flowers be sent.
 Born in Toronto in 1835, S. H. Blake was educated at Upper Canada College and Toronto University, graduating in 1858. Two years later he became a barrister and took silk in 1872. Almost immediately he was called to the Bench and was Vice-Chancellor of Ontario until 1881, when he resigned and resumed general practice. He had the respect of the entire Bar of Ontario, and had filled most of the offices of honor in his gift.

 His chief joy in life, outside of his profession, was the English Church. He was truly a religious man, upright, and uncompromising as the Puritans, and with a passion for the modified Ritual of the branch of the church. He had no sympathy with the Oxford movement. All his life he had been a Sunday school teacher, and it was a rare privilege to listen to his clear and masterly exposition of Holy Scripture. He was one of the founders of Wycliffe College, has been president of the International Sunday School Convention of the Toronto Y. M. C. A., and of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. Proud of his church, proud of his creed, determined, vigorous, broad-minded and supremely intellectual, he was beyond question the most eminent layman of the Anglican communion, and one of the most eminent Christians of this country.

Of late years the most spectacular legal cases in which he was engaged was the Gamey trial, when he led a brief for the Provincial Conservative party, in opposition to Mr. E. F. B. Johnston, K.C.
 Mr. Blake was twice married. His first wife was the daughter of the late Bishop Croyn, of London, and his second, Miss Baird, of Toronto.

SETS HAY ALIGHT.
 Four-Year-Old Boy Perishes and Mother Is Burned.

TORONTO, June 24.—Four-year-old Tommy Taylor of 163 Shanley street, was burned to death and his mother badly injured in attempting a rescue, in a fire which destroyed the stables of R. G. Bainbridge of 165 Shanley street at five o'clock yesterday afternoon. According to the information in the hands of the police the unfortunate child, along with another, lighted some hay in a stable. The child was unable to climb back to safety and was almost instantly succumbed by the flames which immediately shot to the roof of the stable.
 Mrs. Taylor saw the flames almost immediately and rushed to the stable to rescue her child, but her efforts were in vain.

Floods in China.
 LONDON, June 24. — Cablegrams from China report devastation by flood involving thousands of lives. The damage to property and crops is estimated at more than $5,000,000 around the West River.

The towns submerged include Sunshou, Dosing, Takhing, Shuhing, Samsuhl, Kumchuk, Kowloon, and Wushing. The railroad between Samsuhl and Canton is also under water.

GREAT SALVATION COUNCIL OF WAR

Over 2,000 Delegates From Ends of the Earth—Under the Red Hat.

General Bramwell Booth presides over one of the most remarkable gatherings in the history of the world. Salvation Army soldiers from the uttermost ends of the earth have come to the Congress in the Albert Hall. There will be 2,100 delegates from over the seas and over 3,000 from the United Kingdom.
 During the week the curiosity of Londoners in the central thoroughfares has been piqued by the sight of beakfeuls of men and women, white and coloured, in red hats—like a Turkish fez without the tassel. They are Salvationists from the West, seven hundred in number, recruited from the cities and wilds of the United States and even from remote Hawaii.

From other countries have come officers and workers in native costumes—cool white robes from the East, and the picturesque gala dresses of European peasantry. They have come from frozen North and tropic South, from lonely outposts of prayer and healing beyond the frontiers of law and trade, and it seems a far cry from the day when one man stood alone almost in East London and drummed the earliest recruits into the Army.

The army of overseas Salvationists will march into the Albert Hall with bands playing and banners flying in a body such as London has never seen before. They come from fifty-eight countries and speak thirty-four languages.
 They include twelve natives of South Africa, among them being a Zulu warrior, a witch doctor, a rickshaw boy, and a Red Blanket Kaffir; twenty natives of India, including a devil dancer and members of a criminal tribe; Japanese, in native costumes, with an ivory tusk and bamboo instruments; negroes from the United States; Salvation cowboys from Canada; South Americans in the costumes of Argentina, Uruguay, Chili, and Peru; the crew of the Salvation Army lifeboat Catherine; Booth, which has been driven to Norway waters; Newfoundland delegates in blue jerseys with a white seal on the breast; delegates from Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, etc. in picturesque peasant costumes; and Icelanders in native dress.

Workers in the Lone Lands
 At some of the meetings to be held during the next fortnight there will be demonstrations of the way in which native music has been adapted to the Army's work. Negroes from the Southern States will sing old negro songs with plantation melodies, such as "Good-by, old Pharaoh," and the New Zealanders will sing Maori choruses with an accompaniment of gesture and facial play that suggests a war dance.

One of the loneliest workers who will be present is an officer who spends all his time with the Eskimos, nearly always within the Arctic circle. Almost as lonely are those working in the leper settlements in Java. Among them is Staff-Captain H. G. G. formerly lecturer at Copenhagen University, a medical man and an eye specialist, who has come to London after seven years' work among the lepers.

Many interesting phases of work are represented by the American delegates. In one of the prisons there has been a Salvation Army corps. A well-conducted convict corps. A major, and the governor and chaplain are soldiers. A woman officer is deputy-sheriff of Walla Walla county, in the State of Washington, her special duty being the care of women and children. With the brass band from Flint (Michigan) comes the adjutant's wife, who is a police matron, and Colonel Gifford, a Boston detective, is a justice of the peace.

This Saturday there is to be a great march from the Embankment to Hyde Park, where meetings will be held around twelve platforms. Other congress arrangements include an all-day demonstration at the Crystal Palace on Tuesday, June 23, an all-night prayer at Clapton Congress Hall, beginning at 11 p.m. on Thursday, June 25, and the concluding meeting at the Albert Hall on Friday, June 26.

Land Values in Brantford Are Increasing Steadily

This is proven by reference to our record of sales, which is kept in a book for the purpose. Every deal we make, whether it be a small lot or valuable store, mill or factory, is entered in this book, giving date and amount.
 On looking over our record we find that—
 Eight years ago we sold vacant land on Lorne Crescent at $25 per foot. NOW WORTH $60 PER FT.
 Eight years ago we sold lots in the Hunt Survey at $1 to $3 per ft. NOW WORTH $3 TO $7 PER FT.
 Seven years ago we sold lots in Stevenson Survey at $2.50 per ft. NOW WORTH $5 PER FT.
 Six years ago we sold lots on Dufferin Ave. at $20 per ft. NOW WORTH $60 PER FT.
 Five years ago we sold lots in Parkdale at $3.50 per ft. NOW WORTH $10 PER FT.
 Five years ago we sold lots in the Robinson Survey at $3 per ft. NOW WORTH FROM $5 TO $6 PER FT.
 We have sold and are selling lots in Prospect Park at $3 and $5.50 per ft. We expect values to increase in Prospect Park, and that history will repeat itself. We shall be glad to furnish buyers with plans and price lists. Write or call. Terms—$10 down, $5 monthly.

Charges Were Thrown Out

[By Special Wire to the Courier]
 GODERICH, Ont., June 24. The original charges of bribery against Dr. A. H. Macklin, the Conservative candidate, and Rev. L. H. Elliott, in connection with the former's campaign, were dismissed this morning by Magistrate Keppel. The new charges of conspiracy to unlawfully secure the election were adjourned until after the elections.

FIRE AT BROCKVILLE.
 BROCKVILLE, June 24.—Fire which started in the dry kiln after midnight destroyed the wood working department of the James Smart Co. The blaze gained such headway before the firemen arrived that it was impossible to stay the progress of the flames. Besides the factory a double dwelling was consumed with its contents. The occupants of an apartment house beat such a hasty retreat that a small child asleep in a bedroom was forgotten. At the risk of his life, Constable Gazier effected a gallant rescue of the youngster. The loss is $20,000, about half covered by insurance.

A WESTERN TORNADO
 CHICAGO, June 24.—Last night's wind storms caused no loss of life. The storm was most severe at Watertown, S. D., where it reached the proportions of a tornado, destroyed buildings in over thirty blocks and injured 22 persons. Wires are down in Wisconsin, Minnesota, parts of Iowa, South Dakota and the upper peninsula of Michigan. Information that no great damage was done outside Watertown was gained from the railroads in the storm area.

NO TRUTH IN IT.
 MONTREAL, June 24.—There is absolutely no truth in the rumor. This was the statement made to-day by D. E. Galloway, assistant to President Chamberlain of the Grand Trunk Railway, in answer to a report coming from Chicago yesterday to the effect that the Grand Trunk Railway would in a short time take over the operation of the Chicago Great Western Railway.
